ALLIED LEADERS DISCUSS FIUME PROBLEM

HEAD OF THE ROYAL IRISH CONSTABULARY REMOVED FROM POST

Westminster Gazette Says Action of Irish Government Toward Sir Joseph Byrne May Lead to Further Trouble in Island

London, Jan. 9.—The Irish Government has suspended General Sir Joseph Byrne as Inspector-General of the Royal Irish Constabulary. Some reports say he has been dismissed. Byrne is an Irishman and a Roman Catholic, and it seems his dismissal came as a complete surprise to him.

The Westminster Gazette says that if the general impression of the grounds of dismissal is correct, the step taken by the Government is ominous of further trouble.

Journals which have always represented the Unionist view in Ireland, adds The Westminster Gazette, are agreed that the dismissal of Byrne is in the nature of a calamity and it is difficult to take any other view.

The Times, in a lengthy editorial, says such a dismissal of one of the most important officials at the present grave juncture, of Irish affairs demands the most ample justification. The Times proceeds:

"The public knows that the present methods of the Irish Government enjoy the support of none of the moderate elements of the Nationalists, and have been strongly criticized even by Unionists. The dismissal of a man who, as far as the public estimate of him is correct, has been one of the most valuable officers in Ireland, raises in an acute form the whole question of Irish administration. If the Irish Government has done right, now is its opportunity to justify its discharge of its British trust. If it has done wrong, we sincerely hope, Sir Joseph Byrne will be honorably reinstated, whatever the consequence of such reinstatement may involve."

Comment on Proposals.
Dealing with Mr. Lloyd George's plan for self-government for Ireland, Rev. Father Leisen, writing to The Dublin Evening Telegraph, says the "constant stream of insult poured upon the Premier, and indeed upon the whole people of Great Britain, indicates neither sanity nor a generous heart in Ireland. Foes of Home Rule may get off free while the hate of all Ireland is concentrated on the one statesman capable and willing to settling the Irish case. After forty years of disappointment, let Irishmen grasp the present chance of making a beginning of self-government, if we do really believe in Home Rule at all."

ARTILLERYMEN TO MEET IN OTTAWA

Canadian Artillery Association being Revived After War's Interference

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—(Canadian Press)—The Canadian Artillery Association resumed its activities here to-day after a five-years' absence overseas of members of the executive, who, under the chairmanship of Sir Edward Morrison, K. C. M. G., C. B., D. S. O., Deputy Inspector-General for Artillery, met to discuss the future bearing of the reorganization of the Canadian militia on the activities of the Artillery Association. It was decided to make every effort to keep the demobilized artillerymen in touch with the Canadian Artillery Association, and plans were made for a large attendance from all parts of Canada at the meeting, which will be held in Ottawa on February 26, the day on which Parliament will open.

COLLEGE EDUCATION FREE TO YOUTHS

Sydney, N.S., Jan. 9.—"The time is coming when youth will demand and get from the Nova Scotia Legislature the right to give at least one boy from each working family a college education free of all charges," declared D. D. MacDonald, a Sydney mines labor leader, whose speech was the feature of a labor meeting held here last night.

D. A. Cameron, M.P.P., invited to address the meeting upon the subject of the recent International Labor Conference at Washington, at which he was a delegate, declared: "Canada need never be ashamed of her representatives at any foreign conference so long as she continues to send there men of the type and ability of Senator Robertson and Hon. N. W. Rowell."

Vladivostok Report Says U.S. Troops to Leave Siberia

Tokio, Jan. 9.—A dispatch from Vladivostok received here to-day states that the American Government has decided to withdraw its troops from Siberia.

Huge Gold Nugget Found in Mine in the Belgian Congo

Brussels, Jan. 9.—A gold nugget weighing nearly twelve pounds was discovered recently in the Kivu mines, in the Congo, the Minister of the Colonies announced.

LAKE LIES WHERE SEVEN TOWNS EXISTED IN MEXICO

Mexico City, Jan. 9.—Seven towns near Teocelo, south of Jalapa, were overwhelmed by the recent earthquake and a great lake is covering their former sites, according to a message received this morning from Teocelo through Vera Cruz. Thirty-four bodies had been recovered when the message was filed at Teocelo.

Mexico City, Jan. 9.—Intense excitement and panic reigns among the inhabitants of the cities of Cordoba and Orizaba, in the western part of the state of Vera Cruz, because of the opening of a new crater of the volcano of Orizaba, fifteen miles to the northward. The new crater is emitting smoke, according to reports from military officials.

It is officially reported that nothing untoward has been noticed at the other volcanoes in Mexico.

2,000 Killed.

Experts believe the reported opening of a small and supposedly extinct volcano at San Miguel, and the breaking out of a new crater on Mount Orizaba provide an explanation of the earthquake which on Saturday night centered with terrific effect along the line between the states of Vera Cruz and Puebla. New advice told of 800 deaths near San Miguel and in the country districts near Cordoba, and it seems probable the final list of casualties will fall below original estimates of 2,000 even if reports of 1,000 deaths at Cuatlan were exaggerated. It is believed twenty villages were completely destroyed, with almost double that number of towns and villages badly damaged.

DECLARED NOT ALL KILLINGS MURDER

Proprietor of London Catholic Herald Arraigned in Dublin

London, Jan. 9.—Charles Diamond, proprietor of The London Catholic Herald, was arraigned at the Mansion House, Dublin, to-day, charged with the publication of an article in which he is alleged to have said that "killing is not murder."

Diamond, according to the indictment, "did unlawfully solicit and endeavor to persuade and proposed to divers persons in Ireland, and the article was intended to be circulated, to murder divers persons carrying on the Government."

The Lord Mayor remanded the defendant, who protested against the "transferring of Dublin Castle methods" to London.

Ten Indictments for Manslaughter Follow Wood Alcohol Affair

Springfield, Mass., Jan. 9.—Ten indictments for manslaughter were reported last night by a special grand jury which has been taking evidence for two days in connection with the alleged sale of "whisky" said to have contained wood alcohol and which, it is claimed, resulted in the deaths of more than sixty persons in the Connecticut Valley. Other indictments were returned charging illegal sale of liquor, and also several secret indictments.

LENINE ASKS SOCIALISTS OF ITALY NOT TO REVOLT

Rome, Jan. 8.—The Epoca says that Nikolai Lenine has written another letter to the directors of the Italian Socialist Party imploring them not to precipitate any revolutionary movement which in the present conditions would have no probability of success.

Lenine adds that a revolution in Italy now would have a grave repercussion in the Russian Soviet Republic, which is about to negotiate with bourgeois powers for acknowledgment of the present state of affairs in Russia and also for essential economic agreements. All this would be rejected, says Lenine, if a revolution should occur in Italy, because, with the eventual spread of Bolshevism throughout Europe, in a spirit of preservation the states still immune

RESULT OF SPLIT IS NOT CLEAR YET

Democratic Party in States Now Watching Wilson and Bryan

Washington, Jan. 9.—President Wilson's decision that the League of Nations issue should be placed before the voters of the United States as a "solemn referendum," and William J. Bryan's contention that the Democratic Party cannot go before the country on the question but should accept such a compromise "as may be possible," are the twin surprises of the convulsive Democratic Party chiefs which found its climax in the annual Jackson Day dinner here last evening.

To-day the rank and file of the Democratic Party, as well as the leaders throughout the country, are studying the opposite announcements of the two national leaders and are attempting to assess their effect on the party's fortunes at the nominating convention which will be held in San Francisco, June 28 and at the polls next November.

Many political observers feel it is too early yet accurately to estimate the position in which the cleavage between the President and the foremost Democrat in private life leave the party. They feel that the situation must settle down a little and that the opinions of the rank and file must be sounded.

Whether the positions of the two men, now definitely announced, mean a fight in the national convention reminiscent of the spectacular battle in Baltimore the 1912, when Mr. Bryan forced the President's nomination, none of the party leaders is willing to predict for publication.

Divided.

Sentiment among the Democratic leaders at the Jackson Day dinner as expressed in their speeches seemed to be divided between support of the President's decision and Mr. Bryan's position, while some of the men who are on the list of nomination possibilities did not touch on the subject at all. It seems agreed that Mr. Bryan's argument that the treaty should be ratified with such compromises as may be possible will give a tremendous impetus to the movement which steadily has been going on in the undercurrents of the Senate for a compromise of the League is, it is thought by some of those on both sides of the contest, may speed the movement.

Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, and foremost in the fight against ratification of the treaty without reservations, takes a completely opposite view and has issued a statement declaring the President's message makes impossible the hope that the Senate might compromise its differences and ratify the treaty "protected by the principles set forth in the fourteen reservations."

An appeal to the people at the polls, the Republican Senate leader declares in his statement, would to him be "most cordially welcome."

Big Shipment of Whisky to Canada Comes From Glasgow

Halifax, Jan. 9.—The steamship Saturnia, which arrived here this morning from Glasgow and will dock at the south terminals, has in her hold a large consignment of whisky, said to total 60,000 cases, for Montreal.

MAY LAND "REDS" AT FINNISH PORT

American SS. Buford, "Soviet Ark," May Put Russians Ashore There

Radicals Will Not Be Landed at Copenhagen As Reported

Stockholm, Jan. 9.—The 249 undesirable Russian radicals deported from the United States on the transport Buford, the "Soviet Ark," probably will be landed at Hangö, Finland, and will proceed to Russia by rail under a strong guard, it was said here to-day.

The Finnish Legation lacked official information, but belief was expressed that the no communication would be allowed with those landing from the Buford, who would be furnished with sufficient food for the journey by rail. The harbor of Reval is frozen and the port of Libau is believed improbable as a landing place for the undesirable.

The Swedish authorities declare that those deported from the United States will not be allowed passage through Sweden.

Copenhagen, Jan. 9.—Undesirables deported from the United States will be landed here and transported to Danzig, according to reports. The operation will be carried out under the supervision of Danish police, it is stated, and the radicals will not be permitted to come in contact with the population of the Danish metropolis.

Each ship bringing deported aliens will bear 600 persons, it is stated, and the United States Government has arranged with the United States Shipping Company to take them to-day.

Report Denied.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Alien radicals deported on the army transport Buford, which now is plying the coast, will not be landed at Copenhagen, nor is it planned to send other deportees from this country to the Danish port, Anthony Cassinelli, Commissioner-General of Immigration, said to-day. He still refused, however, to say where the Buford would land her passengers.

Cassinelli conferred to-day with army officials, presumably for deporting additional radicals to Soviet Russia.

Aid to Dependents.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The Government has decided to render aid to the dependents of alien radicals whom it deported, Assistant Attorney-General Garvan announced to-day. Action in this direction will be taken purely as a humanitarian measure, and not because of any obligations, to the families of the aliens, he added.

DAMAGE TO SHIP PUT AT $1,000,000

Fire Got Great Hold of St. Louis New York

New York, Jan. 9.—Damage to the American Line steamship St. Louis, which burned at a Hoboken shipyard last night, was estimated at $1,000,000 to-day. The interior of the ship was wrecked and her plates badly warped. The origin of the fire is not known.

The St. Louis was being refitted as a passenger vessel after service as a transport Louisville during the war. Launched at the Cramps shipyard in Philadelphia in 1914 and christened by Mrs. Grover Cleveland, she was the first passenger vessel to be built in this country in more than twenty years.

Was Fastest.

The craft at that time was considered the largest in existence and was the fastest. She and her sister craft, the St. Paul, launched the following year, were used as auxiliary cruisers during the Spanish-American War. The St. Paul capsize at her pier draft, the late war.

The St. Louis brought home so many French wives of American soldiers in her later days as a transport, that navy men called her the "Bridal Ship."

LABOR BODY

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—(Canadian Press).—The Department of Labor is in receipt of a cable from Albert Thomas, Director of the International Labor Office, setting forth the programme for the meeting of the Governing Body in Paris on January 26. This meeting will be attended by E. A. Acland, Deputy Minister of Labor, as Canadian Government representative, and by Tom Moore, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, as the employees' delegate.

City of Bokhara in Hands of Bolshevik Troops, Say Reports

London, Jan. 9.—Bokhara, capital of the important Khanate of Bokhara in Central Asia and less than 200 miles from the Afghanistan frontier, has been entered by Bolshevik forces, according to War Office reports.

FEARS EFFECT OF PROHIBITION

Rev. Dr. Campbell Morgan, London, Says Revolution May Follow

Syracuse, N.Y., Jan. 9.—Revolution is likely to follow in the wake of prohibition, according to the Rev. Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, pastor of Westminster Chapel, London, Eng., now visiting in Syracuse.

"Whenever a great country banishes strong drink it must prepare for a revolution," he declared from a pulpit here. "When a man stops drinking he begins to think. All that happened in Russia in the revolutionary line has occurred since vodka was abolished. When London goes dry her East End will rise."

Hip Pockets.

New York, Jan. 9.—Prohibition will sweep hip pockets in men's trousers into innocuous desuetude according to an induction by experts of the International Association of Clothing Designers, who to-day issued an edict:

"Make them smaller and shallower this season."

Commenting on the attitude of the designers, George W. Hermann, a member of the organization, said:

"It is illegal to tote a gun; it is unlawful to carry your handkerchief there, and you can't buy anything but wood alcohol to put in your flask. So the pocket just naturally will shrink away."

INSURANCE SHOWS GREAT INCREASE

Head of Canada Life Says Companies Facing New Conditions

Toronto, Jan. 9.—President Cox, of the Canada Life Assurance Company, at the annual meeting of the company yesterday referred to the enormous increase in the amount of insurance, sold by all the insurance companies in the last twelve months, and asked if the companies, should the demand persist, could meet the call without leaning unduly upon their existing members. He said it was obvious that the companies could not go on indefinitely undertaking the large volume of business that was offering by curtailing profit payments, and it was equally obvious that they must not come to perform to the fullest extent the functions required of the companies. The Insurance Act of Canada, Mr. Cox said, made provision for meeting the situation, and there was no good reason why all the companies should not avail themselves of it.

The board of directors was re-elected.

A. Thomas, French Laborite, May Be One of League Officials

Paris, Jan. 9.—(Havas).—Albert Thomas, the French Labor leader, probably will resign from the Chamber of Deputies to become the chief of a department of the League of Nations, according to The Echo de Paris.

SOME EGYPTIAN LEADERS TO MEET MILNER MISSION

Cairo, Jan. 8.—Via London, Jan. 9.—A number of the moderate Egyptian Nationalists, including a former Premier and members of the Egyptian delegation, have issued a statement expressing a desire to accept Viscount Milner's invitation for a frank discussion of pending issues in the Egyptian situation. This is regarded as preparatory to a decisive adjustment of the situation.

Authorities here have begun an investigation of the killing of an Italian musician by a British soldier on January 4. Feeling is running high among Italians and Egyptian Nationalists, the latter seeking to make capital out of the incident.

SETTLEMENT OF FIUME PROBLEM ATTEMPTED BY ALLIED PREMIERS

Meeting Held in Private by Lloyd George and Others in Paris To-day; Date of First Meeting of League Council Will Be Fixed

Paris, Jan. 9.—The Fiume problem was taken up at a meeting held in private to-day by the Premiers and other Allied statesmen assembled here. The meeting was attended by Premiers Lloyd George of Great Britain, Nitti of Italy and Clemenceau of France; Earl Curzon, British Foreign Secretary; Vittorio Scialoja, Italian Foreign Minister; Andrew Bonar Law, a British Privy Councillor; Hugh C. Wallace, American Ambassador to France; Baron Matsui, Japanese Ambassador; Paul Dutasta, General Secretary of the Peace Conference, and Philippe Berthelot, Political Director of the French Foreign Office.

A session of the Supreme Council preceded this meeting. It was presided over by Premier Clemenceau and attended by Premiers Lloyd George and Nitti.

Foreign Minister Scialoja and Earl Curzon and Mr. Bonar Law. At this meeting Secretary Dutasta reported his conversations with Baron von Lersner, head of the German mission, regarding measures taken by the Commission on Schleswig affairs which will be applied upon the coming into force of the peace treaty.

The Council decided that expenses of the High Commission in control of the Rhine region should be borne by Germany as well as the cost of the army of occupation.

League Meeting.

The Council took up the subject of the first meeting of the Executive Council of the League of Nations, which the treaty provides shall be called by President Wilson. It was announced that the date for the meeting would be fixed later.

Conferees.

Before the Supreme Council session Premier Clemenceau conferred for an hour with Mr. Lloyd George. Previously he had received Alexandre Millerand, Governor of Alsace. The Supreme Council will hold another session to-morrow.

FARMER DELEGATES SEEK COMPROMISE

Political Action in Provincial Affairs Considered at Manitoba Convention

Brandon, Man., Jan. 9.—An entire morning session of the United Farmers of Manitoba to discussion of the big question of independent political action in provincial affairs was insufficient to insure a conclusion, and at the noon adjournment the question was still under discussion. Opinion was varied and the debate promised to be lengthy. The original resolution left to local constituencies the initiative in provincial political action, and an amendment proposed the preparation of a provincial political platform by a central committee, and would have endorsed united action in Manitoba politics, while a second amendment would have had such a platform prepared on request of a majority of the constituencies. At the close of the session it was suggested that since it was apparent that the sponsors of the resolutions could be carried unanimously, an effort should be made to agree upon a compromise plan. An attempt by the sponsors of the resolutions to agree on such a compromise was to be made before the afternoon session, it was understood.

MOVE TO KEEP LIQUOR OUT OF ONTARIO

Toronto, Jan. 9.—A general meeting will be held shortly by the Ontario Referendum Committee to consider the question of asking the Ontario Government to make a request to the Federal Government for the taking of a vote in this province on the question of the importation of liquor from Quebec or any other province into Ontario, according to a statement made to-day by Dr. Andrew Grant, secretary of the Referendum Committee.

Responsibility.

G. F. Chipman, editor of The Grain Growers' Guide, addressed the convention, and said the farmers had a responsibility in provincial politics which they had not lived up to. "The crookedest legislation ever enacted in Legislatures and Parliaments has been put through with the assistance of farmer members," said Mr. Chipman. "Because there have always been some farmer members and in the past they have been strong party men." Mr. Chipman told the delegates that they had largely neglected the Provincial Government. He thought they should evolve a provincial platform and give the Government a chance to legislate on the basis of a satisfactory response direct political action might be taken.

CRERAR ADDRESSES MANITOBA FARMERS

Resolutions Express Views of United Farmers of Prairie Province

Brandon, Man., Jan. 9.—The most urgent of the problems facing the farmers' independent political party in Canada are in the federal field. Hon. T. A. Crerar last night told the convention of the United Farmers of Manitoba. The former Cabinet Minister talked for more than an hour, late in the evening, and outlined federal problems, tariff, naval and military expenditures and imperial relations.

"The only way to escape the vast financial burdens which rest on us is by the practice of drastic taxation and rigid economy," said Mr. Crerar.

He urged the importance of the supremacy of Parliament over Cabinet, and advised the Federal Government to remove all restrictions on personal liberties and restore all the liberties enjoyed before the war.

Mr. Crerar said that he had little doubt that there would be a good representation of farmers in the next Parliament, and he would like to see fifteen or twenty Labor men there too. The farmers would meet heavy opposition, since special privileges died hard. Mr. Crerar expressed his belief in the principle of direct taxation, and denounced the existing tariff system.

Trial by Jury.

A resolution was passed demanding that "Canadian citizens" should not be deported without trial by jury. A resolution censuring the Federal Government because, in the words of the resolution, it had "used the censorship to prohibit certain literature exposing the methods of various financiers," and especially the publication known as "The History of Canadian Wealth," a criticism of the Government, was cheered, and it was decided that the resolution should be broadened and reinterposed.

Military Establishment.

A resolution dealing with the Canadian military establishment was introduced and consideration was deferred after a speech by Lieut.-Col. C. D. McPherson, M. P. P., of Portage la Prairie, who found fault with the proposal for a Canadian military establishment of 10,000 men. The resolution demanded that the military forces should be reduced to a minimum, that there should be no compulsory military training, and that military Department expenditures should not exceed those of the pre-war period.

QUEBEC MOTORISTS AND INTOXICATION

Quebec, Jan. 9.—The Laforte Bill, providing for a term of imprisonment not exceeding two years without the option of a fine for all who are found driving motor-cars in a state of intoxication, came up for second reading in the Legislature yesterday afternoon.

As Mr. Laforte was explaining his bill, Mr. Sauve, leader of the Opposition, interrupted:

"How is that in a state of intoxication?" he asked. "There is no more liquor in the Province of Quebec. At least the Provincial Treasurer led me to believe that his license measure would go away with it."

Mr. Laforte: "My bill will help."

Mr. Sauve: "Why does not the member for Drummond amend the License Act?"

The bill was referred to the Public Bills Committee for further study.

GALERE-ELECTED MAYOR OF VANCOUVER

Majority of 1,557 Over T. Kirk; Proportional Representation Endorsed

Vancouver, Jan. 9.—Mayor R. H. Gale is still Vancouver's chief magistrate and by his decisive victory at the polls yesterday over Alderman Thomas H. Kirk, with a majority of 1,557, has earned the distinction of being the only living man who has broken the unwritten rule against a third successive term as Mayor of this city. Only two other mayors in Vancouver history were accorded the honor at the hands of the electors of three successive terms.

Ward One—Gale, 935; Kirk, 718.
Ward Two—Gale, 712; Kirk, 498.
Ward Three—Gale, 240; Kirk, 269.
Ward Four—Gale, 958; Kirk, 636.
Ward Five—Gale, 507; Kirk, 746.
Ward Six—Gale, 1,392; Kirk, 1,233.
Ward Seven—Gale, 787; Kirk, 411.
Ward Eight—Gale, 813; Kirk, 216.
Total—Gale, 6,234; Kirk, 4,727.

Aldermen Joseph Hoskin and J. J. McRae were re-elected respectively in Wards IV and VI, while two new members to Council seats in the persons of P. C. Gibbens and James Reid will take their seats respectively for Wards III and VII. The four seats on the School Board will be filled by Mrs. E. A. Angies, James Blackwood, Mrs. Dora Macaulay and John H. Simpson, while the vacancies on the Park Board will be taken by Alderman W. C. Shelly, Commissioner A. J. C. Weeks and George H. Cottrell.

Proportional Scheme.

As predicted by its supporters, the plebiscite to provide for the proportional representation form of voting and election in future carried by a majority of 3,254.

The electors gave decisive negative majorities to the One-Ward By-law and also the plebiscite on redistribution of the city into four wards. The late David Oppenheimer, who served as Mayor four terms, 1888 to 1891, and the late James F. Garden, who was returned for three terms, were only chief magistrates before Mayor Gale in the city's history to break the "unwritten rule." L. D. Taylor also served three terms as Mayor, but there was a three-year interval between his second and third terms.

Alderman Frank Woodside, the representative of Ward Seven for the past nine years, was defeated by James Reid by a majority of 57.

Aldermen.

The votes for Aldermen follow: Ward Three—P. C. Gibbens, 357; J. A. Benbow, 332; spoiled, 3; majority for Gibbens, 354.
Ward Four—Alderman Joseph Hoskin, 1,003; Lionel Ward, 714; spoiled, 3; majority for Hoskin, 289.
Ward Six—Alderman J. J. McRae, 1,058; Sidney C. Elliott, 886; Stephen J. Birch, 488; spoiled, 73; majority for McRae, 72.
Ward Seven—James Reid, 685; Alderman F. E. Woodside, 588; Harry Clapton, 61; spoiled, 32; majority for Reid, 57.

In Ward One James Ramsay was elected by acclamation, as were also Fred Cronin in Ward Two and Alderman F. P. Rogers in Ward Eight.

BORDEN MAY NOT RETURN TO PUBLIC LIFE IN CANADA

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—The general expectation here is that Parliament, after it assembles on February 26, will be in session for three or four months, after which Sir Robert Borden will not return to Ottawa until after prorogation. The Evening Citizen states that there is a growing impression that Sir Robert will not return to political life because of the danger that such a step would result in a complete physical breakdown.

ALBERTA BUTTER.

Calgary, Jan. 9.—Production of creamery butter in Alberta is considerably greater this winter than in any previous winter, and the total production in 1920 is expected to be 25 per cent. or approximately 2,500,000 pounds, greater than in 1919.

Catarrh Of The Stomach Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," Says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How to Recognize and Treat.

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, gas, wind and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of mucus covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds a deadly disease, the blood is unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Last stage ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bismuth Magnesia in half a glass of hot water, just as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water softens the mucus from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the bismuthic magnesia builds up the mucous membrane and increases the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the Bismuthic Magnesia which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be present, and it is not a laxative, is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any druggist.

Bismuthic Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milk, citrates, etc., but it is the pure bismuthic form (either of tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.

Thin, Nervous People Need Bitro-Phosphate

Weak, thin people—men or women—are nearly always nervous wrecks; thus conclusively proving that thinness, weakness, debility and neurasthenia are almost invariably due to nerve starvation. Feed your nerves and all these symptoms due to nerve starvation will disappear.

Eminent specialists state that one of the best things for the nerves is an organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, a five-grain tablet of which should be taken with each meal. Being a genuine nerve builder and not a stimulant or habit-forming drug, Bitro-Phosphate can be safely taken by the weakest and most delicate sufferer, and the results following its use are often simply astonishing. By strengthening the nerves, weak, thin people regain energy and vigor; thinness and angularity give way to plumpness and curves; sleep returns to the sleepless, confidence and cheerfulness replace debility and gloom; dull eyes become bright, and pale, sunken cheeks regain the pink glow of health.

CAUTION.—Bitro-Phosphate, the use of which is inexpensive, also wonderfully promotes the assimilation of food, so much so, that many people report marked gains of weight in a few weeks. Those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh, should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

BOLSHEVIKI CLAIM DENIKINE'S FORCES MUST SURRENDER

London, Jan. 9.—A Bolshevik wireless message from Moscow yesterday afternoon claimed the capture of 5,000 prisoners forty miles southeast of Achinsk, on the Trans-Siberian Railway. Another 4,000 were taken near Kemerovo, forty-five miles east of Achinsk, the statement said.

Bolshevik cavalry had captured the town of Berdiansk, on the north shore of the Sea of Azov, one of the most excellent ports on the sea, the message said.

The capture of Berdiansk gave the soviet navy entry to the Sea of Azov, the message claimed, and meant definite surrender of the forces of General Denikine, the anti-Bolshevik leader in South Russia.

The dispatch added that the Reds were continuing their irresistible march and that the fall of Rostov-on-Don and Novocheerkassk was expected soon.

The wireless gave a report from Rome that a delegation of Italian Deputies was going to Russia to study the situation.

WINNIPEG STREET RAILWAYMEN NOT INTERNATIONAL UNION

Winnipeg, Jan. 9.—Carmen of the Winnipeg Electric Railway Company have dropped their allegiance to the international union and formed a new independent union unaffiliated to any other union or organization, but it is understood that it will affiliate with the One Big Union provided that organization alters its charter and becomes less radical in its objects. Objection to dues being "paid across the boundary line" determined the action of the men, officials stated. This money, they say, will be used only for local improvements.

Funds already paid to the international union for insurance amounting to over $100,000 will be lost to the members, however. Eleven hundred men are employed by the company. Eight hundred and fifty votes were cast, with 55 per cent in favor of seceding. It is believed that a number will remain with the international union.

TRADE AT BARCELONA IS DISLOCATED BY UNSETTLED STATE

Barcelona, Jan. 9.—Protests against the situation in this city, which was described as "intolerable," were laid before the Civil Governor here last night by the president of the British, French, American and Italian Chambers of Commerce. The Governor assured the delegation the Government was determined to bring stern measures to bear in an effort to restore order and allow a resumption of work, particularly that affecting shipping and transport.

800,000 HOUSES NEEDED.

London, Jan. 9.—This country needs to be rebuilt to meet successfully the housing needs. This was the opinion expressed yesterday by Viscount Astor, Parliamentary Secretary to the Health Ministry before the Society of Architects. The country needs not the half million houses so often spoken of, but 800,000.

He declared that the problem must not be viewed with the idea of clearing up the plague spots in the various cities or setting out a few garden cities. He was optimistic that enough skilled labor would be available in the Spring and Summer to meet the requirements.

"Did the dentist cause you much pain extracting your teeth?"
"Not so much as he did extracting his fees."

SEATTLE NOW URGES CHICAGO-ALASKA AIR MAIL SERVICE

Seattle, Jan. 9.—A resolution asking the Post Office Department to establish an aerial mail service from Chicago to Alaska, with Seattle as a relay point, was adopted yesterday by the Aero Club of the Northwest. A copy of the resolution was forwarded to Otto Proeger, Second Assistant Postmaster-General. Another resolution, asking the Postmaster-General to issue a $500,000 bond issue to purchase landing fields here, was addressed to the Seattle City Council.

BRIG.-GEN. ROSS IN TERMINAL CITY

Vancouver, Jan. 9.—Brigadier-General J. M. Ross, C.M.G., D.S.O., lately appointed General Officer in Command of Military District No. 11, reached this city yesterday with his family. General Ross, who spent some time with relatives in Ontario since his return from overseas, plans to remain in this city a few days before proceeding to Victoria. He will take over command of the military forces in British Columbia and the Yukon Territory on January 15. As a former resident of this city, General Ross has many friends here with whom he is renewing acquaintance. It is understood that members of the 29th Battalion, of which unit he was adjutant, and later commanding officer, will give a dinner of welcome to the new General Officer Commanding, while there also will be a similar function arranged to take formal leave of Major-General R. G. E. Leckie, C.M.G., the retiring General Officer Commanding.

JUDGE IN MANITOBA GIVES GRAIN RULING

Winnipeg, Jan. 9.—Chief Justice Mathers has given an interesting decision to farmers in the Court of King's Bench in the matter of the measurements of grain threshed. The case was that of Martin vs. Sutton, and plaintiff claimed that the quantity of wheat threshed should be reckoned according to the tally on the separator and be paid accordingly for his work. The defendant disputed these weights and asked that the measurements given by the elevator company to which he hauled the grain should govern. The Chief Justice found from the facts that the weights shown by the separator tally should be allowed. He also found that eight and ten cents was a fair price for threshing in the Sperling district of Manitoba during the season. It was there the case originated.

PRICE OF SUGAR AGAIN ADVANCED

Winnipeg, Jan. 9.—The price of granulated sugar advanced 2½ cents a pound at two of the largest refineries in the East yesterday, wholesalers here announced. The advance is based on the higher price of the new Cuban raw sugar. The wholesale cost, dealers stated, is $15.50 for the 100-pound bag of granulated sugar. All other kinds of sugar have advanced in proportion.

ITALIAN MINISTER RESIGNS.

Rome, Jan. 9.—Gen. Albrici, Minister of War, resigned yesterday because of opposition to his project for reorganization of the army.

SCOUTS TO GIVE AN ENTERTAINMENT

Lads in Duncan Wish to Pay For Their Uniforms

Duncan, Jan. 9.—The Rev. A. Bischoff has been appointed Scout Master here and will begin his duties as soon as S. H. Hopkins, the present officer, leaves the district.

An entertainment will be given by the Scouts on Friday evening, January 16, to pay off the indebtedness on their uniforms. The Cowichan Women's Institute has kindly promised to provide supper for this event. The programme will be a display of the boys' work in signalling, first aid, drill and other exercises, a concert and a dance.

Discussion.
At a meeting of the Women's Independent Political Association in the King's Daughters' rooms two very well thought out papers were delivered, one by Mrs. Mahon on "Preferential Tariff" and the other by Mrs. Lamont on "Free Trade." Mrs. Lamont's paper dealt largely with how the present tariff laws affect the farmer.

At the next meeting there will be a further discussion on how the present tariff affects local industries and resources, or how it would affect industries likely to be introduced.

Watch as Gift.
Miss Geoghegan, who is now on her way to England, was presented by the ladies of the Girl Guides' Association before she left here with a silver wrist watch as a souvenir of the Guides. Miss Denny, who has been a Girl Guide captain in England and also Scout Mistress, has kindly consented to take Miss Geoghegan's place as captain. The Guides have also been fortunate in securing the help of R. A. Thorpe with the gymnastic classes.

CANTEEN ALLOTMENT NOT DECIDED YET

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—In an effort to clear the public mind with regard to the question of canteen profits made during the war, a proposition of which will ultimately come to Canada, the Department of Overseas Military Forces of Canada has issued an explanatory statement.

The statement shows that the canteens in Great Britain and those operated elsewhere were separate organizations. It emphasizes the point that just now any estimate of the amount which will accrue to Canada, or any other of the British belligerents, from canteens operated on the continent is impossible "owing to the fact that the profits earned by this committee cannot be disclosed until full account is taken of all trading done by these canteens, and as well, the losses sustained throughout by enemy action and other causes." In the retreat of the Fifty Army, vast quantities of supplies belonging to the canteen were destroyed. Contrary to press reports, it is stated that neither Australia nor any other British Dominion has been paid a cent out of the canteen profits. Not a cent has been brought to Canada, and it may be the end of the present year before the amount this country is to receive will be known.

LEGISLATION FOR AMERICAN ARMY

Washington, Jan. 9.—To enable the War Department to maintain temporarily American troops in German and Siberia, Secretary Baker recommended yesterday to Congress legislation authorizing an army of approximately 275,000 officers and men for the remainder of the fiscal year. The number is 100,000 in excess of the peace time army permitted by the National Defence Act. A bill carrying out the Secretary's recommendation later was introduced by Chairman Wadsworth, of the Military Committee, and was referred to that Committee.

FEELS LIKE A NEW MAN STATES BLACK; CAN EAT ANYTHING

Weighed Only Hundred and Seventeen Pounds Before Tanlac Built Him Up

"Yes, sir, Tanlac has built me up until I am feeling like a new man, and I have gained eleven pounds in weight," said Harry Black, 2303 Robinson Street, Regina, Saskatchewan, a few days ago.

"For two years before I began taking Tanlac I had been in bad health, and had fallen off to one hundred and seventeen pounds in weight," Mr. Black continued. "I never felt hungry, and indigestion troubled me so bad that the little I did eat only caused me to suffer afterwards. My blood was badly out of order, and my face, neck and back broke out in one big mass of pimples. I was restless at night, and sometimes I slept only a few hours. When I got up every morning my bones seemed to ache, and I was in such a weakened, run-down condition that I felt worn-out all day long."

"I tried everything I knew of, but I kept getting worse, until a friend recommended Tanlac to me, and I started taking it. And the way it went after my troubles was a surprise to me, and my improvement has been so rapid that I don't feel like the same man. I can sit down to the table now and eat anything set before me without being troubled in any way. My blood has been purified, and the pimples have just about entirely disappeared. I sleep sound all night long, and I feel so fine all day long that my work is a pleasure to me. I consider Tanlac the greatest medicine in the world, and I don't hesitate one minute to recommend it highly."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas Avenues.

WILSON AND BRYAN DIFFER IN VIEWS

Washington, Jan. 9.—A split between President Wilson and William J. Bryan over whether the League of Nations should be made an issue at the coming Presidential election, topped off the Jackson Day deliberations of the Democratic party chiefs here yesterday.

It came at the Jackson Day dinner, as the climax of a day in which San Francisco had been chosen as the meeting place of the Democratic National Convention on June 28, and it charged the air with political electricity.

President Wilson, in a message, read to the diners assembled in two separate halls, declared that the "clear and single way out" was to submit the question to the voters, as "a great and solemn referendum."

Mr. Bryan declared that the Democratic Party could not go before the country on the issue, because it involved a delay of fourteen months, and meant success only if the Democrats captured a two-thirds majority of the Senate. The party, Mr. Bryan declared, "must secure such compromises as may be possible."

The disagreement between the President and his former Secretary of State, the first in public view since Mr. Bryan left the Cabinet because he did not agree with the President's course in the diplomatic negotiations with Germany, was thus disclosed as a fact, although it had been rumored and reported in the underground currents of national politics. In the opinion of the political leaders, it crystallized an issue.

PRINCE OF WALES TO VISIT RANCH

Calgary, Jan. 9.—The Prince of Wales is determined to visit his ranch in Alberta the coming fall on his way back from India, according to Prof. Carlyle, of Calgary, who has just returned from England, where he made arrangements for the shipment to the ranch of thoroughbred Dartmoor ponies, which the Prince is introducing to Alberta, and thoroughbred Shorthorn cattle, and Shropshire sheep.

The name of the ranch has been fixed by the Prince as "The E. P. Ranch." Prof. Carlyle, who is the manager of George Lane's ranches, also will manage the Prince's ranch.

FEWER GERMANS TO BE TRIED BY ALLIES

London, Jan. 9.—The list of war criminals to be demanded by the Allies for trial has been considerably revised and reduced from the originally proposed 1,200 to about 300, according to The Daily Mail.

"It was thought better," the newspaper adds, "to demand a few against whom specific serious charges have been lodged than a long list, including many persons charged with light offences. The former German Crown Prince and former Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria remain on the list."

HIGHER SALARIES FOR JUDGES ARE URGED

Regina, Jan. 9.—At a meeting of the Saskatchewan members of the Council of the Canadian Bar Association held here Wednesday, it was decided to join with representatives from other provinces in sending a delegation to Ottawa to press for a revision of the salaries of the judges. Chief Justice Brown, J. F. Frame, K. C., and J. A. M. Patrick, K. C., were appointed.

It was announced that the 1920 annual meeting will be held in Ottawa about the end of August.

VANCOUVER'S POSTMASTERSHIP.

The appointment of an outsider to be Collector of Customs at Vancouver a short time ago in preference to the promotion of a member of the Customs staff to that position aroused deep resentment in the Dominion Civil Service Association which was trenchantly expressed in The Civilian, the organ of the association.

There is now a vacant Postmastership in Vancouver in consequence of the resignation of Mr. R. G. Macpherson. There is an experienced and fully-qualified assistant Postmaster on the job. What is going to be done about this vacancy? Is the assistant Postmaster going to be passed over in favor of an outsider who probably would know no more about the duties of his position than the man in the moon and whom he will have to instruct, or will the principle of promotion be applied as a matter of elementary justice and efficiency in the public service?

The assistant head was passed over when Mr. Macpherson was appointed by a former Administration. That was political patronage, but is not the Union Government on record as being opposed to patronage and favoring appointment and promotion in the public service on merit? Certainly, the next Postmaster of Vancouver should be chosen from among the employees of the Vancouver Post Office Department with special consideration for the principle of promotion, without the adoption of which there can be no real efficiency in any service.

ENDS LONG SERVICE

The retirement of Mr. George Jay from the School Board ends a notable term of public service. Mr. Jay has been a member of the Board for some nineteen years, during the greater part of which he has been presiding officer and during the whole of which he labored indefatigably for the improvement of the educational system of the city. He has been an important factor in the development of that system to its present state of efficiency and can look back with much satisfaction and pride upon his association with the Board.

Besides Trustee Jay, Trustees Mrs. Andrews, Perry and Deaville also have reached the end of their terms. So far Mrs. Andrews is the only one of the retiring Trustees who has offered for re-election. Dr. Raynor, who has not served on the Board before, is the only other aspirant and unless more candidates are forthcoming there will be no contest for the Trustee seats, two of which will remain vacant. This would reflect a singular lack of interest in a service which costs the taxpayers more than $300,000 per annum.

THE NEW LIBRARIAN.

Apart from the wisdom of adopting the policy of promotion wherever possible the Government of the Province has made a wise selection in the appointment of Mr. John Forsyth to succeed the late Mr. Scholefield as Provincial Librarian and Archivist. Nobody better than Mr. Forsyth, of course, realizes that he has been chosen to follow in the footsteps of an expert in his calling. The Province, however, will have the benefit of the services of a trained librarian whose twenty-two years' experience in this country and in the Old Land should enable him to continue the work in which he and his predecessor had been so closely associated with credit to himself and to this important department of the public service. During the long illness of Mr. Scholefield Mr. Forsyth discharged the duties of the office to which he has now been elevated with marked ability and success.

MAYOR GALE RETURNED.

Vancouver has returned Mayor Gale for a third time as its Chief Magistrate. His opponent put up a good fight and towards the close of the campaign both aspirants injected not a little "ginger" into their platform appeals. In his capacity as Alderman and Chairman of the Finance Committee Mr. Kirk has demonstrated marked ability and had been successful in defeating the now three-times mayor the affairs of the Terminal City doubtless would have been in good hands. Mayor Gale has proved himself a good administrator through a period in which all municipalities have been called upon to keep a "steady head." The fact that his "charge" has prospered under his personal and public progressiveness unquestionably found tangible reflection in yesterday's vote.

THOSE HOUSES AGAIN.

Viscount Astor, Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Health, is of the opinion that if England is to meet her housing needs successfully she requires to be rebuilt. He declares that instead of half a million houses so often spoken of, eight hundred thousand are necessary. His Lordship, however, makes no mention of the fact that a shortage of bricks and not wholly a shortage of skilled labor is responsible for Great Britain's housing dilemma at the present time. And if he has the least persuasion with Dr. Addison, the responsible Minister of the Department, he might assist the people of England to a point where they would demand the British Columbia wooden house, the value of which, at the present juncture, as well as a more permanent solution of housing problems of the future, has been extolled in the press of the country by Agent-General Wade.

THE GRAND MUFTI ADAMANT.

Every patriotic Egyptian should find it to his benefit to do all in his power to aid the Milner Mission, for unless there is manifested this willingness at the outset the Egyptian people must not expect a report truly representative of Egyptian needs and Egyptian aspirations. The reverse would very probably be the case and the document constitute a collection of opinions with only a smattering of local color.

It is all very well for the Grand Mufti to declare that no Egyptian patriot would enter into any discussion which fell short of complete independence and a removal of the protectorate. His authority, of course, as the religious chief of the Mohammedans in Egypt may not be lightly brushed aside or can his opinions be disregarded. At the same time there need be no very great cause for alarm in his prediction that open revolt would follow the adoption of any other but his own policy. Other more astute gentlemen than the Grand Mufti have predicted a holy war in the event of certain circumstances; but without result.

Discussion, of course, will take place whether the Grand Mufti likes it or not. But it must be understood, on the other hand, that British administration can only be a success by understanding and taking into account the native point of view, which would have to include a full appreciation of certain British interests—her vital interest in the Suez Canal, in finance, and in irrigation—and opinion will be not a little effulgent if Great Britain is prepared to hand over larger spheres of Government in the same broad spirit which has characterized the new legislation for India.

According to the Ukrainian Bureau at Washington it was the Ukrainian army which destroyed General Denikine's hopes of capturing Moscow. The Bolshevik War Office claims the same distinction, yet the Ukrainians and Bolsheviks are at war with one another!

The Wall Street Journal has traced the yarn of a $13,000,000,000 British loan in the United States to the Hearst papers and dubs it as an attempt to create anti-British feeling. Mr. Hearst very probably remembers that the "tight little isle" preferred his room to his company during the war.

American communists are said to be backing a soviet centre in Glasgow whose ramifications are extending to various towns on the Clyde. When Uncle Sam deports his undesirables it should be possible to see that transportation takes them to the "red" happy hunting ground, while at every port of entry into civilized countries it should be made easy to "spot 'em."

Anna Manson, known as "starlight sylph of the soviets" and declared "the most beautiful Bolshevik," enraptured the police officials at New York to such an extent that they missed the Ellis Island "deportation special" and Anna was taken alone by a very courtly officer. Lenin should recognize Anna's sagacity and present her with a "red" medal.

Professor Bogert, of the Department of Economics under the direction of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, estimates the total direct cost of the war at $186,339,637,097 and the indirect cost at $151,612,542,097, or a total cost under both heads of $337,952,179,657. This includes, of course, an estimate of the monetary value of the individuals lost in the struggle, the total of whom is placed at 4,000,000.

Congratulations to those energetic bodies of Victoria who are making it their business to see that the Johnson Street Bridge and Municipal Golf Links by-laws are duly passed on the fifteenth. Stick to it.

Nobody will object if some of the members of the Legislature curtail their speeches on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne. There's an awful lot of time wasted on "flap-doodle."

One of the Bolshevik army commanders is General Evart, who commanded the central group of the Russian armies on the East Front before Russia's collapse and who was regarded as one of the ablest military chieftains in the Czar's domain.

The "soviet ark" Buford, laden with a cargo of "Reds" headed by the gentle Emma Goldman and Alex. Berkman, is about to enter Kiel Canal en route to the Baltic and, no doubt, Petrograd, "Home, sweet home." Germany will take mighty good care the Kiel Canal is free from obstruction, so that the passage of the Buford is not delayed in her waters.

WOMEN WAGE-EARNERS.

(London Daily Chronicle.)
A hue and cry is being raised in many quarters against the employment of women, as if women were doing something wrong by adding to the total production of the country by their labor. They ought not, of course, to remain in jobs needed by men who vacated them in order to join up, and they ought not to undersell men. But in the latter case the culprit is not the woman but the employer. The indiscriminate outcry is in many cases leading to gross injustice. Other things being equal, women has as much right to work as men. To turn them recklessly into the streets, not on account of inefficiency, but their sex alone, is a policy as disastrous as it is unjust.

ONE HUNDRED.

(New York Evening Post.)
Why is it that when anybody sets out to draw up a list of the best or the cheapest or the most beautiful, he is content with nothing less than 100? One hundred best novels of the season, for instance. There isn't such a thing. One hundred pretty good novels possibly, or one hundred not so bad novels probably. Formerly people used to draw up lists of the twenty best books since Homer, and then naturally had to work hard to keep down the list. Now a man has to work like a slave to fill out his hundred best detective stories of the season. Or think of the job of getting up a list of 100 most beautiful and popular Matrons of South Jamaica, Long Island. And is it really helpful to have 100 Cheapest Ways of Preparing Spinach?

SIX MONTHS IN JAIL
FOR SELLING LIQUOR

Claude Lineer, Bartender at Comus Hotel, Sentenced
This Morning

Found guilty on a charge of keeping liquor for sale in the Comus Hotel, Store Street, Claude Lineer was sentenced to six months with hard labor by Magistrate Jay in the police court this morning.

The accused was arrested by Constables Bishop and Walton on Wednesday afternoon. Constable Bishop searched Lineer behind the bar and after a scuffle took a bottle, containing whisky, from the accused's hip-pocket.

Lineer told the court that the liquor was the last of a prescription he had obtained two weeks before. He carried it about with him in order that he might take it as directed by his physician.

Hindu Has Liquor.

Lab Singh, a Hindu, was fined $50 and costs for having liquor in his possession. He was arrested by Constables Bishop and Walton outside the Grand Central Hotel on Monday night last. The accused, with another Hindu, was in a motor car and his actions attracted the notice of the police officers as he drove past the corner of Government and Johnson Streets. Singh stated in the witness box that the liquor did not belong to him, but to another Hindu.

Peter Cook and John Ferguson, who face charges of keeping liquor for sale, were remanded until Monday next.

WOULD RESTRICT ESSENCE DRINKING

Medicated Wines Also Too
Popular for Beverages,
Prohibitionists Say

The unlimited sale of flavoring essences and medicated wines to persons who are now in the habit of using them as alcoholic beverages is to be investigated and steps taken to end it as the annual convention of the People's Prohibition Association here on February 18 and 19. Delegates from all parts of the Province will attend.

Prohibitionists are against the practice of the uncontrolled drinking of flavoring essences and medicated wines, and say that persons who use these mixtures for their own gratification are defeating the purpose of prohibition. They propose that the drinking of such products as beverages should be made illegal, and will forward recommendations to the Dominion Government on the matter.

"The abundance of prescriptions for liquors issued by some doctors is another matter that has to be taken up, as it has been decided that it is altogether too easy to obtain liquor here."

"The Government is disposed to amend the Prohibition Act limiting the number of prescriptions that a doctor may issue per month and the quantity in each prescription, says W. G. W. Fortune, general secretary of the Association. "We must press for these necessary amendments." "There are other equally important measures to be brought before the Government. The restoration of inter-provincial traffic brings in new issues. The question of the amount any person may import at one shipment or have in his possession at any one time, will be fully discussed. "The action of the Dominion Parliament in placing on the provinces the onus of prohibiting the importation into, and manufacture for beverage purposes within the Province, of intoxicating liquors, demands our keenest attention and earnest deliberation. The question of a referendum on bone dry conditions will be dealt with at the convention."

IMPORTANT TRIAL ON
OWNERSHIP OF LAND

E. & N. Asked Declaration of Ownership and Damages
in Supreme Court

Considerable interest is being taken in the trial of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway vs. Wilson and others which commenced on Monday before Mr. Justice Gregory in the Supreme Court and has been adjourned until next month in order to allow counsel for the plaintiff to secure the evidence by commissions of two witnesses, which is pertinent to the case.

The plaintiff's claim is for a declaration that the Crown Grant issued to the defendants in alleged pursuance of the powers contained in the Vancouver Island Settlers Rights Act, 1864, Amendment Act, 1917, of section 3, range 7, containing 100 acres, and the easterly sixty acres of section 8, range 7, Cranberry district, is null and void in so far as it purports to grant to the defendants coal, coal oil, stone, clay, marble, slate, mine, mineral and substances in, upon and under the said lands, and that part of the surface of said lands to which, or upon which, the plaintiff is entitled to exercise acts of ownership, purchase or rights to easement.

The plaintiff also asks an injunction to restrain the defendants, their servants, agents and workmen or assigns from entering and working on mining for coal and other materials and substances and from registering or applying to register any title, thereto, and exercising acts of

HEAD OF THE ROYAL IRISH CONSTABULARY

Fair Consideration.

The Evening Telegraph, which has taken the place of the suppressed Freeman's Journal, prints a letter from Dr. John McArdle, the distinguished Dublin surgeon, which condemns the proposals, because they are alleged simply to secure Ulster her ascendancy and endow her with a veto on the West of Ireland. However, this letter, coming from a prominent lay Nationalist, is significant, because it appeals for fair consideration of the measure.

"We should study the proposals carefully," says the writer, "and if we find that by any improvement they could be made workable, we should seek amendments. There may be the germ of real and lasting freedom in the highly camouflaged statement of the Premier, but until the printed bill is before us Nationalists, we would be unwise to refuse it our full consideration."

An Opportunity.

Inquiries among other Irishmen show that while keenly alive to the acuteness of the question, they are not eager adherents of any particular school of opinion. They do, however, show impatience with others who profess themselves ready to refuse the present offer forthwith. It does seem as if there was an idea among a considerable section of Irishmen that in the present proposals there is an opportunity of eventually working out a settlement.

Many, for instance, believe it an appreciable advance that affairs of purely Irish local self-government should be removed from Westminster. The financial proposals are received doubtfully in almost all quarters, particularly that of the Imperial Exchequer's retention of £15,000,000 out of Ireland's taxation of £41,000,000, but there is forthcoming the reply that if the present proposals should fail, the £41,000,000 would continue to be exacted as the Irish contribution to the Imperial Exchequer while Ireland would lose the promised £4,000,000 yearly of land purchase annuities.

The New England Restaurant will reopen January 15.

POTATOES UP; EGG PRICES DROP

Island Crop Falls, American
Prices High; Hens Laying
Better Now

Potatoes went up 75 cents to $1 a sack to-day, but egg prices fell 10 to 15 cents a dozen.

Last week potatoes were selling around $70 a ton wholesale. To-day they are $85 and expected to go higher. Although the wholesale price is up it may be a day or two yet before all retail prices are raised correspondingly as some retailers intend to sell the stock they have on hand bought at the former price before they raise their prices to their customers.

The reason for the potato price advance is the poor island crop this year and the fact that this city was thirty cars short in its receipts of imported potatoes during the months of October, November and December, according to figures of the railway companies. This has resulted in the depletion of the surplus stocks.

Seattle is facing a potato famine, and is paying $100 a ton. This is resulting in a great export of British Columbia potatoes to get the advantage of the higher American price which is doubly profitable now because of the higher value of American money.

Eggs fell to 70 cents wholesale to-day and some stores were retelling them at 75 cents a dozen this morning. Last week the retail price was around 90 cents a dozen. A few weeks ago it touched $1.10.

Reasons for the tumble in egg prices include the fact that hens have suddenly taken to laying more prolifically, partly because of the mild winter. The recent forcing up of egg prices to where it took ten cents to buy one egg resulted in many people deciding to do without eggs. With the demand largely cut off and an increasing supply, producers had to submit to a big fall in egg prices to find a market for their products.

JOBLESS SOLDIERS CROWD CITIES

Officials Distributing Forty Millions Find Country Men
Need Little Aid

Unemployment and suffering among returned soldiers and dependents are confined chiefly to the cities of Vancouver and Victoria, officials of the Canadian Patriotic Fund have discovered in their investigations in connection with the distribution of the $40,000,000 appropriated by the Dominion Government to relieve distress.

Distribution of the $40,000,000 throughout the Dominion, with the exception of the cities of Victoria and Vancouver which each has its own organization, is being handled by the provincial organization of the Canadian Patriotic Fund under Secretary Fred Nation, of Victoria. The distribution is being carried on in much the same way as it is in the cities through the local Patriotic Fund committees in all the rural centres and towns. Applications for financial assistance outside of the cities have been so few in number so far that the officials of the fund are surprised. They find that most of the men who leave the cities and go to the small towns or the country soon find employment and get above the condition where they have to rely on the Government for assistance. Relief for settlers stranded before their land becomes productive is provided, but the calls thereon are reported not to be extensive. In both the chief cities of the Province are concentrated the unemployed hordes.

In Victoria the corridors on the second floor of Belmont House are filled nearly all day with men waiting their turn to make application or to receive their unemployment dole.

Up to to-day there have been 1,164 applications from Victorians. December payments, many of which were not issued until last week, totalled $43. January payments are now being dealt with.

Unemployment in Victoria is extremely serious, according to R. Patrick Foster, Unit Service Officer for British Columbia of the S. C. R. He estimates the number looking for jobs here as 2,500.

PRaise for Wade

Premier Oliver Gets Copy of Letter
Sent From London to Prince Rupert.

Writing to the Secretary of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade from London in connection with publicity matters, Fred C. Slater, of the Grand Trunk Railway System, has the following observations to make in respect of the manner in which Agent-General Wade is keeping this Province and its opportunities before the people of the Old Land.

The letter says in part: "I would like to say on behalf of Mr. Wade, not only is the Province of British Columbia represented in a way which is unbounded credit to that Province, but its influence is reflected throughout Canada in publicity work on this side through your present representative, and it has been a great pleasure for us to co-operate with him in any interest, and especially that bearing upon Prince Rupert."

Overseas Club—The Overseas Club is endeavoring to increase its membership to its pre-war status of between 300 and 400, and plans for a campaign to this end were discussed at the meeting of the Dominion Hotel last evening, when Duncan B. McLaren, the president, was in the chair. The present membership of the association is fifty, according to a report made by W. Moss. A communication received from the C.P.R. in response to the query about the absence of English language periodicals and literature at its railway centres, gave the assurance that the matter was being attended to and that literature would shortly be available at these points.

MAYOR PORTER'S REPORT SUMS UP YEAR'S PROGRESS

Annual Statement Points to Results Achieved Under His Regime in 1919

Mayor Porter will submit his report for 1919 to the City Council on Monday night. The report, it is understood, covers in brief fashion practically everything of importance that has occurred in the city's affairs during the year, but is condensed into a document far less voluminous than those framed by many of his predecessors.

As the framing of contracts with the C.P.R. and the Provincial Government governing the establishment of a new link with the Indian Reserve is the most important work that His Worship has achieved, it is naturally mentioned in the first part of the report. The Mayor points out that the city has been able to arrange with both the other parties to the bridge project contracts that embody all the provisions which the civic authorities desired originally.

Important mention, it is understood, also is made of the city's improved financial condition and the fact that a big increase occurred in the percentage of the city's tax collections. It is pointed out that the city's bonded debt has been reduced and that instead of going behind in its current expenses, as it has done in the two preceding years, the city has saved $55,000 on this score. The tax sale held this year probably will be mentioned also in this connection.

Trades License By-Law. The Mayor probably will mention with some gratification the passage of a new Trades License By-law which revises the whole system of license collection in the city and increases the city's revenue from that source.

The recent trip which he took to Ottawa as head of the shipbuilding delegation occupies some space in the report. The Mayor makes much satisfaction to the placing of contracts for four schooners with the Chalmers ship interests, and remarks that the delegation was able to press for an immediate start on the construction of the Esquimalt drydock. The delegation, he observes, was able to put many local matters affecting the city's welfare before the Federal Government.

Housing. The decision of the city to adopt the Better Housing Scheme and the progress which has been made in allowing housing loans to returned soldiers also is given reference to in the report.

As far as the legal department is concerned, His Worship probably will mention the court decision which upheld the city's levy taxes on the Roman Catholic Cathedral, and the decision of the Council not to levy such taxes until an appeal on the case has been heard. Reference may be made also to the Rock Bay Bridge case, the Bailey case and the Westholme Lumber Co. case.

The convention of B.C. Municipalities in North Vancouver, at which Victoria was represented, probably will be mentioned also.

Other Matters. As chairman of the Police Commission, His Worship will express satisfaction with the work of the police force. It is understood that he will state that the enforcement of the Prohibition Act has been vigilant and satisfactory when the limitations and obstacles involved in the measure are taken into consideration.

As for the civic departments the Mayor is highly satisfied with the work of the various officials. Regarding the waterworks system of the city, he probably will point out that a largely increased profit was made during the year.

The fire department, he probably will observe, has operated most satisfactorily.

The Mayor probably will remark on the excellent progress of the public market.

The subject of increased production is mentioned, His Worship pointing to the need for continuing land cultivation this year.

Regarding the probable developments of the present year, he may mention the possible start on the Johnson Street Bridge by-law, the establishment of a municipal golf links, as well as the changes in the civic government that might result from the submission of a resolution on civic reform and on proportional representation.

SEVERAL BURGLARIES

Houses Entered and Jewelry Stolen Last Night—Butter Taken.

Several burglaries have been reported to the police of the last night. Some person entered the home of Frank Munn, 625 Harbinger Avenue, while he was out and opened all the doors and also pried open the drawers of the dresser. A gold watch was stolen.

Between 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and 9.30 o'clock last night the residence of R. Stewart at 1122 Pembroke Street, was broken into and four or five brooches stolen. Mr. Stewart believes that the burglar entered the house from the back, with a skeleton key, as it was opened when he returned.

The Fernwood Meat Market was relieved two pounds of butter and twenty cents in copper on Wednesday night. The place was entered through a back window.

How to Bathe Face to Remove Wrinkles

Since its remarkable astringent and tonic properties became known, clever women all over the country have been using the axolite face bath to "tone up" their faces, remove wrinkles and draw flabby flesh and neck back to normal. After using the solution, the face immediately feels much firmer. The skin tightens evenly all over the face, thus reducing lines and sagging. The formula is: Powdered axolite, one ounce, dissolved in witch hazel, one-half pint.

These ingredients are of course perfectly harmless and there is no difficulty in obtaining them at any drug store.

QUIET ELECTION IN SNOW PROBABLE

First Gun of Campaign to Be Fired To-night; Nominations Received

With only five more days before the poll, all developments point to one of the quietest civic elections in the last few years. The withdrawal of George McGregor from the mayoralty contest probably will mean that Mayor Porter will be re-elected by acclamation and will rob the election of its most interesting feature. The opposition which it was expected would battle with the "Old Guard" of the present City Council, has narrowed itself down to ex-Mayor Todd, the woman's candidate two independents and three labor men. The spirited campaign which was expected from the business men of the city has failed to materialize, so that little excitement is in sight.

Returning Officer W. W. Northcott is preparing the Public Market for the poll, with busy getting ready booths and so forth. So far Mr. Northcott has received nominations of the following: Alderman Cameron, Alderman Todd, Alderman Anderson, Alderman Harvey and J. A. Shanks for the City Council; Mrs. Frank Andrews for the School Board; and M. Greig and R. H. Day for the Police Commission.

The first gun of the campaign will be fired at a public meeting in the Victoria West School. At this gathering Mayor Porter will explain the Johnson Street Bridge By-law which is favored by the Victoria West Brotherhood and by the people of Victoria West generally. A number of aldermanic candidates also will address the meeting.

It is hoped that Alderman Fullerton will announce the referendum on civic reform which he has sponsored. The proposals which the plebiscite puts before the public are the plan to establish a Commission Government here. So far no announcement has been made regarding what form of Commission Government the plebiscite proposes.

"I am very hopeful now that the Johnson Street Bridge By-law will be passed by the ratepayers," the Mayor stated to-night. My observations lead me to believe that it will receive the O. K. of the electors, who generally speaking, realize the necessity of a new link with the Reserve. I have little doubt about the passage of the Municipal Golf Links By-law. I regret that no business men are offering themselves as candidates for civic offices. I had hoped that there would be a lively fight for public positions in the city this year."

The men who are giving active support to the plan to establish proportional representation as Victoria's election system are confident that the plan will be endorsed by the electors.

"The by-law will be passed, I have no doubt," E. S. Woodward, President of the Trades and Labor Council, who is one of the prime movers in the plan, stated to-day. "The decision of Vancouver electors to adopt the system will swing the matter here in the same way."

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN Y. P. A. HOLD BANQUET

The first annual banquet of the Anglican Young Peoples' Association of St. John's Church was held in the schoolroom, on Mason Street, last night, and from the point of view both of attendance and enjoyment was an unqualified success. Over fifty sat down to a banquet prepared and served by a committee of the ladies of the church, and after the good things had been disposed of, a very enjoyable programme of speeches and music was given.

Rev. F. A. Chadwick acted as chairman and the following toasts were given: "The King," "The Anglican Church," proposed by Miss Kitty Ault and responded to by the rector, "St. John's Parish," proposed by S. Hawkins and responded to by W. W. Ballard, the people's warden. "The Anglican Young Peoples' Association," proposed by E. M. Brown and responded to by Miss McIntyre and A. Nicholls.

A very pleasing feature of the banquet was the presentation to C. M. Parrott, made by Mrs. Ault, the first president of the association. Mr. Parrott conducts a Bible class on Sunday afternoons for the young people of the church.

The St. John's A. Y. P. A. holds a meeting every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, and during the past year made a valuable contribution to the organ fund of the church, as well as paying off the debt on the piano.

HAD ECZEMA For Over 28 Years

Eczeema or Salt Rheum manifests itself in little round blisters, which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and smarting, and the intense burning, itching and subsiding, especially at night or when the part is exposed to any strong heat is almost unbearable.

The success which Burdock Blood Bitters has met with in skin diseases of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleansing and purifying properties, and we know of no other remedy that has done or can do so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture.

Mr. James Walker, 152 Niagara St., Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I have been using Burdock Blood Bitters for some months past, and find it an excellent remedy for skin eruptions. I have suffered with eczeema for over 28 years, and have tried almost everything you could think of. I was recommended to use Burdock Blood Bitters, and I am now clear of my skin trouble. It is certainly a good remedy and I shall recommend it to all my friends."

DR. HASELL SPEAKS ON TURNER'S WORKS

Great Water Color Artist Provides Theme of Interesting Lecture

One of the most interesting and instructive lectures ever delivered before the members of the Island Arts and Crafts Club was given last evening by their president, Dr. Hassell, on the "Life and Work of J. M. W. Turner, the Famous British Water Color Artist."

Beginning early in life Turner showed a desire for art, he said, and at the request of his father, who was a barber, he was apprenticed to the great mezzotint engraver, John Raphael Smith.

Here Turner, along with his companion, Girtin, was chiefly occupied coloring prints for sale, said the lecturer, but he also learnt a great deal about engraving, which was to stand him in good stead in after life. At the age of fourteen he passed into the office of a Mr. Humphrey, a famous architect in his time, and from there Turner became a student at the Royal Academy.

When only fifteen years old he sent his first drawing to the Royal Academy exhibition, this was his view of the Archbishop's Palace, Lambeth. Turner continued to exhibit at the Academy. About 1793, however, he had the good fortune to attract the notice of Dr. Monro, the leading physician of Bethlehem Hospital, who was in the habit of inviting young art students to his home to study and copy the works of Rembrandt, Caravaggio, and Gainsborough. Dr. Monro gave the lads half-a-crown a night, and their supper, and kept their drawings! From 1793-96 Turner's advance in power was steady. His objects were varied—English and Welsh Cathedrals, old castles, ruined abbeys, village churches, country towns, waterfalls and trout streams—the latter generally with a bridge, and always with an angler.

In 1799 Turner was elected an Associate of the Royal Academy.

Change of Color. During the ten years between 1803 and 1812 Turner's style in water color underwent a considerable change. He left the dark blues and deep golden browns, which characterized his early days, and gradually adopted a lighter and more natural range of color. Visiting Scotland in 1818 to make drawings for the "Provincial Antiquities of Scotland," he met Sir Walter Scott, then in the height of his "Waverley" fame, and who was gratefully writing the letterpress.

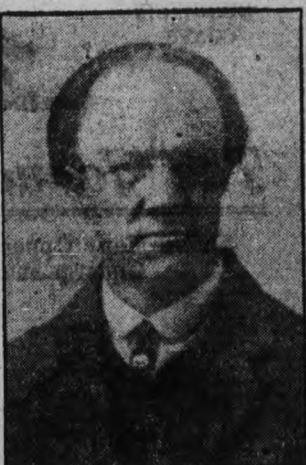

Dr. Hassell proceeded to relate that in 1819 Turner paid his first visit to Rome, and remained there some time, going a good deal into English society at the Embassy and elsewhere. What strikes one in his sketches is their individuality, technical skill, is their individuality. Turner was a true poet, although he had little enough of the look or the manners of one. Throughout his life he was a reader and a voluminous writer of poetry, but his want of education debared him from expressing himself coherently in verse. Many reproductions in color of the most famous of Turner's works were shown to the members during the lecture. The Liber Studioium, and other works were kindly loaned by Mr. Forsyth from the Provincial Library.

Recognize Service. At the close of the lecture a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the president by Rupert Butler.

Miss Mary Mason was presented with a life membership certificate, designed by J. S. McMillan, and written by A. Diester. 18th Century. Miss J. Crease, first vice-president gratefully coloring it. A social hour was afterwards spent under the able direction of Mrs. Sweney.

The next monthly meeting will take the form of a lantern lecture, Mrs. H. W. Graves, who is entering the contest for aldermanic honors, has obtained quarters at the Hotel Douglas, corner of Douglas and Pandora Avenue, as headquarters for the carrying on of her election campaign.

ENTERTAINMENT AT ST. LOUIS COLLEGE

Bishop MacDonald Will Preside at Attractive Function Monday

Right Rev. Bishop MacDonald will preside at an entertainment, unique in the social activities of local school life, to be presented on Monday, January 12, at 8 p.m., in St. Ann's Auditorium, by the boys of St. Louis College.

For some time past the young Theatians have been rehearsing their parts and no effort has been spared to perfect the different features and give the patrons of the school the surprise of the New Year.

A very elaborate programme has been prepared, the swift changing scenes of which are sure to keep the audience keyed to the highest tension. All who love grandeur and beauty in musical and dramatic art will appreciate the purity and charming simplicity of the boy voice heard to effect in solo, duet and chorus of the college choir, and in the excellent acting of the dramatic class.

The physical culture class will reveal in their original display of scepter swinging and dumb-bell exhibition, in which accuracy and precision of movement to the rhythmic accompaniment of the orchestra will be featured.

Quite a departure in local entertainments will be the novel display of Irish dancing. The young artists dressed in the gorgeous costumes of the ancient Gael will give a demonstration of ease and grace in the most intricate steps which is seldom acquired by other than skilled performers.

The one-act drama, "Echoes from Bethlehem," for the first time produced in Victoria, is certain to attract attention. The scenery, the costumes, specially designed for the occasion, the make-up and cleverness of the cast combine to produce a delightful effect.

As the seating accommodation of the hall is small, friends and supporters of the school are urged to secure their tickets early if they wish to enjoy a rare treat such as is seldom given by the younger set of Victoria.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Ore on Princess Creek.

A new ore body, which may be called high-grade milling ore, has been struck in a drift from number 5 tunnel in the Florence mine on Princess Creek. The new body has a width of eight feet. The Florence operates a 300-ton concentrator and employs 40 men.

Iron Ore Resources.

"Only the roughest approximation can be made of the world's iron ore resources. On the basis of explorations up to the present time, the six important ore centers of the world are the Lake Superior region, Lorraine, Northern Sweden, Cuba, Newfoundland and Brazil. The Lake Superior region ranks first in the world as an ore producer, containing, according to authoritative estimates, 2,000,000,000 tons of metallic iron in available reserves and 30,000,000,000 tons in potential reserves. The Minnesota ore of Lorraine, second in importance to our own Lake Superior region.

"The largest known ore supplies which contain 60 per cent. or more of iron are owned by Sweden. This ore comes from the magnetic deposits of Lapland, north of the Arctic circle, which amount to 674,000,000 tons metallic iron. Cuba contains actual reserves of about 1,000,000,000 tons metallic iron and probably is of high grade, but the mines have as yet been little developed. Newfoundland owns enormous deposits of iron ore, estimated at 1,951,000,000 tons metallic iron content. The Brazilian iron fields form perhaps the most important undeveloped iron area of the world. Brazilian ore will have to be exported for smelting unless adequate supplies of coking coal are discovered in that country.

"The United States, besides the Lake Superior region, has three other main ore regions. They are the eastern region, containing the so-called Clinton ores, the Mississippi valley and the Cordilleran or mountain regions of the west. American ore containing 60 per cent. or more of iron is insignificant in amount and is rapidly disappearing. The supply of 50 per cent. ore is sufficient for many years to come, and there are very large reserves of 40 per cent. ore—'Commerce Monthly'.

The Sullivan mine at Kimberley during 1919, shipped 17,845 tons of zinc ore and 15,659 tons of lead ore, to the Trail smelter. The Sullivan is one of the Consolidated properties. At Trail a 600-ton plant for treating Sullivan ores by two different processes have been put out on a small scale and both will be used on a large scale. For some time past 250 tons per day have been treated.

Belmont-Surf Inlet. On Monday cheques were issued for the third dividend for the year 1919, to shareholders in the Belmont-Surf Inlet mines, for 2-1/2 cents per share, of the share capital of $250,000, in dollar shares. This property has been a steady dividend payer for many years. It was located on Princess Royal Island in 1903 by George Kelly, who afterwards sold a half interest to E. A. Cleveland. In 1910 it was sold to the Surf-Inlet Gold Mines, Ltd., composed of local capitalists, who put up the money for development. Later it was turned over to the Tonaph Company, of Philadelphia, for $150,000 cash, for a four-fifths interest, the minority interest still being held largely in Vancouver.

Clyde A. Heller is president of the Tonaph Company, which operates various mines in Nevada, California and Colorado, as well as the Surf Inlet property. After coming into possession of the Tonaph company $1,500,000 was spent on development and equipment before a pound of ore was shipped.

The property is equipped with every modern requirement for economical mining and milling. A Jones oil flotation mill is used to concentrate the ores and has a capacity of 300 tons or better per day. However, the maximum capacity is not often reached, and the average tonnage per day for ten months of the year 1919 was 270 tons. The figures for extraction and treatment are not yet available for 1919.

The property is operated by the company's own hydro-electric plant, which furnishes power for lighting, traction, hoisting and air compression. Cost of power is very low, being less than $1.25 per horsepower per month. The camp equipment is said to be the finest on the coast, consisting of comfortable dwellings for the men and staff, stores, schools and recreation halls. About 250 men are employed at the mine and mill, but for the past two years there has been a shortage of labor.

The mine is worked by tunnels, shafts, stopes and winzes, and ore is treated at a cost of about $7.20 per ton, while the values realized in 1919 were a little over $11 per ton. Owing to the increased price of silver the valuation will be considerably higher for 1919. The average values of the metals for 1919 were as follows: Gold at $20 per ounce; silver, $1.01%; and copper at 22.661 cents per pound which, with an average ore content of 0.481 ounces gold, 0.314 ounces silver, and 5.231 pounds of copper gave a total value of $11.12 per ton. The concentrates showed a total extraction of the assay values of the ore of 91.52 per cent. of the gold content, 90.23 per cent. of the silver, and practically 100 per cent. of the copper giving the concentrates an average value of $11.97 per ton.

On January 1 the ore reserves in all classes, positive and probable and possible were 422,761 tons. As considerable development work was done during the past year these reserves are no doubt considerably increased. The total metal content of the shipments from the mill were as follows: Gold, 33,770 ounces; silver, 22,121 ounces; copper 364,360 pounds, with a gross value of $780,776.02. There was unshipped at that time concentrates valued at $78,762, making a total output for ten months of over $850,000.

Approaching Convention.

The Northwest Mining Association committees at Spokane are already busy with plans for the convention here, which opens February 16 and continues during the week. The banquet will be Thursday night, and Friday night will be the smoker, with a special programme of "stunts" and amusements. Special days have been assigned special mining interests during the convention. Wednesday, the 18th, will be Idaho day, Thursday, the 19th, Washington day, and Friday, the 20th, British Columbia day. Engineers will have Tuesday, the 17th, and the programme to be in charge of the Columbia section of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers. Many inquiries are already coming concerning the convention, indicating much interest among the mines and assuring a fine convention.

Telkwa Collieries.

The Telkwa Collieries have not been shipping as much as usual during the past two weeks, the teams hauling but one load a day on account of opening up a new seam at the mine.

Smelter Output, 1919.

Silver	1,598,489
Copper	951,360
Lead	1,890,597
Zinc	2,563,206

Total $7,942,101

The metal output of the Trail smelter for 1919, with December partially estimated, says The Nelson News, is nevertheless the third largest in the fourteen years history of that plant under the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company of Canada. The two exceptional years mentioned were years of great stimulation, with the base metals at a high market level.

As shown in the table given above the 1919 output is provisionally valued at $7,942,101, also providing nearly one-third of the total value, with lead and silver next in order. The estimated tonnage of ore and concentrates received at the smelter for the year is 219,147, which is about the same volume as last year.

On the basis of the actual figures up to December 31—omitting the last ten days of the year—the total tonnage of 312,661 is divided between raw ore and concentrates in the proportion of 302,589 tons of ore to 10,072 tons of concentrates. Up to that date 134 different properties were represented in these receipts. Properties of the Consolidated Company contributed over 230,000 tons of ore and concentrates.

The distribution of the shipping mines, the raw ore tonnage, and the concentrates from the properties equipped with mills will be seen in the following table:

On Visit Here.

One of the most prominent mining men in the Stewart district and one of the original locators there, Grant Mahood, has arrived from Stewart and spent a short time here. He expressed himself as very sanguine over the prospects and development of the Stewart district.

Florence Mine Strike.

After a shutdown of between two and three weeks in consequence of frozen pipes, the Florence mine and mill, on Princess Creek, has resumed operation. The freeze occurred during the cold snap of early in December, and affected even pipes two feet in diameter that were carrying running water. Announcement that all was now ready for resumption was made by Mine Superintendent R. H. Hewer. A new body of ore that would be termed high grade milling ore was struck a few days before the shutdown, in the middle of the great lime dyke in the left drift from the main or No. 5 tunnel. The new shoot has a width of eight feet or more.

About forty men are employed on the property, including the 300-ton concentrator.

Kootenay Ore Production.

With 462,553 tons of ore handled at smelters, and with 23,322 tons of concentrates also treated, the total production of ore in the Kootenays, says The Nelson News, for 1919 is well over the half million mark in tonnage. Ore and concentrates of Kootenay Boundary origin, not handled by the Trail smelter, were a considerable factor in the production of metals for 1919, amounting to an estimated total of $1,404,500 in value. The Trail figures are treated elsewhere.

The Granby Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company operated the Grand Forks smelter for the first six months of the year, treating 156,821 tons of ore, all but a few odd tons from a couple of mines in the Republic camp, being from the company's great low grade copper property at Phoenix, the Granby mine. The output of the smelter was 1,888 tons of blister copper, which, at an average price of $400 per ton, would work at a valuation of $755,200.

Nineteen Kootenay properties exported ore or concentrates for treatment in various American smelters. These exports were nearly all concentrates, though 3,143 tons of high grade ore were shipped, which at $100 per ton would be valued at $314,300. The concentrates amounted to 12,260 tons, which at $250 per ton would work out at $3,065,000. Thus the estimated total exports would reach $448,500 in value. In all these figures, December is partially estimated.

MANY FARMERS BUY LAND IN PROVINCE

Twenty-five From State of Montana Due Here in the Early Spring

Premier Oliver has received a report this morning from the official in charge of the Industrial and Colonization Department of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway covering his activities in this Province for the year which has just closed.

It is shown in the document that he has been successful in selling land in various parts of the northern section of the Province to no less than thirty people, twenty-five of whom hail from the State of Montana.

The latter, he explains, are all farmers in possession of stock and equipment and expect to move to British Columbia this Spring. The report further indicates that the business of 1919—which involved the sale of 6,378 acres—is considered as a starter with prospects of a very much larger turnover during the present year.

REPORT SHOWS GOOD WORK OF CITY FIREMEN

Fire Losses During 1919
Were Increased by Recent Mill Fire

FIRE CHIEF URGES CHANGES IN SYSTEM

The good work of the Victoria Fire Department during 1919 is shown in the annual report submitted by Chief Vernon Stewart to Mayor Porter to-day. Fire loss for the year, it is stated, increased from $14,896.85 in 1918 to $38,442.75, but it is pointed out that, in cases where $5 to $10 would cover losses in previous years it now requires, owing chiefly to the enormous increase in lumber prices, $30 to $50 to repair practically the same damaged area. Most of the loss during the year resulted from the recent destruction of the Moore-Whittington Mill by a fire, the checking of which was practically an impossibility. The loss otherwise was small.

The chief's report includes a number of recommendations for the improvement of the department during 1920. In case of the prevention of the fire protection system and the inauguration of added fire protection for the waterfront by the use of engine-thrust-on scows.

A Notable Year.—The fires at Point Ellice Shipyard, a pile driver, on April 17; at 551 Burdette Avenue (Burdette House), on June 26, and the Moore-Whittington Mill on December 10, the Chief states, "were the most serious fires during the year."

The year 1919 was a notable one in the annals of the Victoria Fire Department. Mr. Stewart observes, "as during July, seventy-one alarms were received and responded to, nineteen more than any previous year on record. On July 16 a record of fifteen alarms was responded to from 1.31 p.m. to 10.02 p.m., and on December 10 there were thirty alarms responded to between 5.28 a.m. and 5.16 p.m."

Alarms during the year, the report states, numbered 331. The department laid 99,920 feet of hose, used 3,169 gallons of chemicals and fifteen pyrene tubes, raised 3,273 ladders, traveled 1,297 miles, worked 48 hours and 50 minutes at fires, issued 3,100 burning permits and held 2,400 drills.

An Important Work.

One of the most important of the Department's activities is summed up by the Chief as follows: "There were 8,663 inspections, an increase of 5,101, made during the year. A weekly inspection of all private garages in the city was carried out, while the stores and stores outside of the fire limits also have had several inspections. There were 234 notices served. There were two convictions in the City Police Court for breaches of the Fire Prevention By-laws."

Sparks from chimneys caused eighty-one of 137 fires, the Chief states. Defective fireplaces were responsible for six outbreaks and burning cigarette butts accounted for the same number of fires.

New System Satisfactory.

"The two-platoon or shift movement is still in effect, and I cannot speak too highly of the benefits accrued to the members through it, as it adds greatly to the well-being and efficiency of the personnel of the department," the chief declares. "Several calls for parades and two alarms of fire were made during the year on the members of the off-shift, who responded to the call promptly and without exception." "There have been twenty-five changes in the personnel of the department during the year," the chief states. "This number of changes was made to reinstate members of the department who had enlisted for service in the Great War. There are still three members overseas."

Recommendations.

Recommendations for the improvement of the department during the present year are embodied in the following: "I would again recommend that a drill-tower be built at the rear of the Headquarters Station, equipped with fire escapes and stand pipes and a smoke room, so that the members of the department may be drilled in the various methods of fire-fighting and life-saving, as the present hose-tower is not adapted for drill purposes and the proprietors of the several buildings hitherto used strongly object to the department using their premises."

Would Open Another Station.

"I would recommend that steps be taken to reopen either the No. three (Kingston Street) or No. six (Fairfield) stations, which would serve the purpose of covering the James Bay or Fairfield districts, now without adequate protection. Should the contract with the Municipality of Oak Bay be terminated, the No. eight station should be closed and No. six opened, which, in my opinion would give better protection to a larger area."

Would Have Waterfront Protected.

"I would again recommend that steps be taken to protect the use of a scow on which two of the large size pumping engines (from the Victoria fire engines in reserve) with a suitable donkey-bolter could be placed, so the Department may be enabled to make use of serviceable streams of water to fight a fire from the waterfront, notably at the mills, where at times it is not possible to get on more than two sides from the land."

The chief also recommends "that steps be taken to procure in the near future a gasoline pumper and hose wagon, which could replace the steam fire-engine that is in service. A piece of apparatus of this type would effect a big economy in several particulars, especially in coal consumption. In case of water front fires it could be used instantly from the salt water without danger of a boiler foaming and consequently shutting down of the engine; and it is not necessary to wait from ten to fifteen minutes, an important factor in fire fighting, to start pumping as the case of a steam fire-engine which requires that length of time to get up steam."

Local Council of Women.—The Local Council of Women will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday, January 12, at 2 o'clock, in room 202 Union Bank Building, View Street. With the kind permission of the Island Arts and Crafts Club, this room will be the regular meeting place of the Council in future. Much important business will come up for discussion at Monday's meeting, and it is hoped that there will be a full attendance of representatives of affiliated societies.

The New England Restaurant will reopen January 15.

NEW MINE INSPECTOR IS APPOINTED TO-DAY

Hon. Mr. Sloan Selects T. R. Jackson to Succeed John Newton

The appointment of Thomas R. Jackson, Manager of No. 1 Mine, Canadian Western Fuel Co., Nanaimo, to the position of Inspector of Mines for the Coast Inspection District rendered vacant through the death recently of John Newton, of Nanaimo, is announced by Hon. Wm. Sloan, Minister of Mines.

Thoroughly qualified, admitted to be in every respect competent both by operators and miners, and highly respected by all identified with the mining industry, his nomination for a post of responsibility is regarded as highly satisfactory from the standpoint of the efficiency of the Mines' Inspection Staff of the Provincial Department of Mines.

Started at Bottom.

Mr. Jackson started work as a coal miner in the Extension Mines, Canadian Collieries (D) Limited, in the year 1902. In 1905 he gained his second class certificate of competency. From that year until 1909 he was Fireboss for the same Company when he was appointed Overman of No. 2 Mine Extension. In 1907 he had taken his first class certificate for competency. The year 1911 found him in the position of Overman in No. 1 Shaft, Canadian Western Fuel Company, and in 1912 he became Mine Manager at No. 1 Mine, for the same Company, at Nanaimo. This position he has occupied ever since to the satisfaction of the Company and the men.

Not only is Mr. Jackson a practical miner, who has trained himself in the technical branches of the business, but he always has shown a keen interest in the advancement of the interests of the workers. "It is his theory that all employees, particularly those engaged underground, should have a good knowledge of First Aid, as well as of the general principles of Mine Rescue. While this is so he is a firm believer in the truism that prevention is better than cure," for which reason he is a devoted disciple of "Safety First."

The new inspector is president of the Vancouver Island Mine Safety Association.

How To Kill Dandruff So It Won't Return

By a Specialist.

That the dandruff germ is responsible for nearly all the diseases to which the scalp is heir, as well as for baldness and premature gray hair, is a well-known fact. We appreciate, therefore, the importance of any agent that will destroy its power. For this reason it is a pleasure to give herewith the prescription which a famous scalp specialist states he has found after repeated tests, will completely destroy the dandruff germ in from one to three applications. It will also almost immediately stop falling hair and it has in numerous cases produced a new hair-growth after years of partial baldness. This prescription can be used on all heads, or any druggist will put it up for you. 6 ounces Bay Rum, 2 ounces Lavender Compound, with completely dry hair, rub the scalp with the finger tips. If you wish it perfumed, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. While this preparation is not a dye it is unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color.

A BEDTIME STORY

UNCLE WIGGLY AND HIPPIE HOP.

(Copyright, 1919, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
(By Howard R. Garis.)

"Oh, Uncle Wiggly! May I go with you?" called a voice after the bunny rabbit gentleman one morning, as he hopped out of his hollow stump bungalow. Mr. Longears turned quickly around to see who it was. For he thought, perhaps, it might be the skillery-skillery alligator with the hump on his tail. "Oh, it's you, is it, Billie?" said good-natured Uncle Wiggly, giving his pink nose an extra twinkle, because it was a cold day in Woodland, near the Orange Ice Mountains, and the bunny rabbit gentleman did not want his glasses to freeze fast.

Soon Billie Bushytail, the squirrel, and Uncle Wiggly were hopping over the fields and through the woods looking for an adventure.

"What kind do you think we'll find?" asked Billie, as he climbed up a tree to look for a hickory nut. But he did not find any, I am sorry to say.

"Oh, well! we may have a funny adventure, or an exciting one," said Uncle Wiggly, with a laugh. "What kind do you want?"

"Both!" chattered Billie in answer, and Uncle Wiggly laughed again.

"Well, we'll see!" said the bunny gentleman, and on he and Billie went, hopping over the fields and through the woods.

All of a sudden, just as they were passing through a little village, near the pond, where Tootle and Noodle Flat-Tail, the two beaver boys, lived, Billie stood still, flicking his tail to and fro as squirrels always do when they hear or see something strange.

"What's the matter?" asked Uncle Wiggly. "Do you see the Pipsissewah?"

"No, not exactly," answered Billie, "but what is that funny scraggly thing over there on the hill of snow?"

"Why that is—dear me! I hope it isn't the lean and scraggy Skeezick!" spoke the bunny gentleman, wiping the frost off his glasses so he might see better. "Oh, no!" he exclaimed, as he took a second look.

"That's all right, Billie. It is only a last year's Christmas tree. I guess it was the one Tootle and Noodle had had, after New Year's, they threw out, as all Christmas trees are, when Santa Claus has finished with them."

Uncle Wiggly and Billie hopped over the old Christmas tree, and there were no gay and pretty lights on it now; no red, green, blue and golden balls; no bags of candy and no toys.

"Well, the Christmas tree made somebody happy," said Uncle Wiggly. "Now its work is finished."

"Yes, but mine isn't!" suddenly howled a harsh and unpleasant voice. "My work is just begun!" and out from behind a big rock near the old Christmas tree sprang the bad Skeezick. He was so thin and scrawny and scraggly that he could very easily hide behind even a hat tree if he had to.

"Yes, now for my work!" howled the Skeezick. "And my work is to get some sense off your ears, Uncle Wiggly! Here I come!"

The bad chap was just going to catch hold of the bunny gentleman's ears, when, all of a sudden, there was a shaking and quaking among the branches of the old Christmas tree, and something colored red and blue and yellow and green sprang out and landed right on the back of the Skeezick.

"Wow! Wouch! Smouch!" yelled the Skeezick. "Who is pinching the middle of my back?"

"I am!" cried a thinnier, tinier skinnier sort of a voice, and Uncle Wiggly and Billie saw a queer little wooden man skipping about on the shoulders of the Skeezick. "I am pinching you to make you tell Uncle Wiggly's house name," said the funny little wooden man.

"Well, I'm not going to tell Uncle Wiggly alone!" boldly said the Skeezick. "Ouch! Wouch!" he suddenly cried again. "Now you're pinching my legs!" And, surely enough, the funny little man who had scrambled out of the old Christmas tree obtained his footing on the thin legs of the Skeezick.

And then, before the bad chap could grab the little man, the funny

Listen!

Have you heard about Pepp's? It is a scientific preparation put up in pastille form, which provides an entirely new and effective treatment for coughs, colds, chest and throat troubles.

Pepp's contains certain medicinal ingredients, which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapor, and are breathed down the air passages to the lungs.

On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the lungs.

In a word, while no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Pepp's fumes get there direct, and at once commence healing.

FREE TRIAL. Cut out this across the name and date of this paper, and mail it (with 1c stamp to pay return postage) to Pepp's Co., Toronto. A free trial packet will then be sent you. All druggists and stores sell Pepp's, 50c. box.

fellows began pinching the Skeezick's nose hopping about like a sand-piper. And he pinched the Skeezick's ears and his cheeks and his arms and legs and everything, skipping about as fast as an egg beater.

"O, wow! This is too much for me!" said the Skeezick, and away he ran, not getting any of Uncle Wiggly's house at all, while the funny little wooden man, who had come from the Christmas tree, stood howling and smiling at the bunny gentleman and squirrel boy.

"Why it's a jumping Jack!" exclaimed Billie. "A jumping Jack that some one forgot and left on the tree!"

"No," said the jolly little wooden man. "I am not jumping Jack. Hippie Hop is my name, and jumping Jack is my brother. We both do the same things, though we have different names. And it is true I was forgotten and left on the Christmas tree. I was wondering if I could ever be of any help in this world."

"Well, you certainly were a great help in driving away the bad Skeezick," said Uncle Wiggly. "I'll take you home for Squeakie-Eekie liked Hippie Hop very much. So this teaches us that even old Christmas trees are of some use. And if the baby carriage doesn't run down hill with the rag doll and spill her sav-dust all out on the sidewalk, I'll tell that about Uncle Wiggly and the whistle."

"CUT THIS OUT" OLD ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you know of someone who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and send it to them and they may have been the cause of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear, which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs, which is equally as dangerous.

The following formula, which is used extensively in the damp English climate, is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climatic conditions.

Secure from your druggist one ounce of Parment (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it a quarter pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Parment used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or whose hearing is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.

APT TO VANISH. "What is this man charged with, officer?" "Moonshining," replied the sheriff's deputy.

"Those jugs, I suppose, contain the evidence?" "Yes, and it's no easy job keeping an eye on this fellow and the jugs at the same time. One is just as apt to disappear as the other," Birmingham Age-Herald.

READING BY SOUND. A remarkable electrical invention has recently been made by means of which the blind are enabled to read by sound. The invention is an application of the well-known principle whereby the resistance of a selenium electric cell can be varied by alterations in the intensity of the light impinging upon the plates.

In this particular application variations in the light are provided by reflection from the printed pages of a book over which the apparatus is passed. Every different printed letter will cause a slight alteration in the reflected light, and these variations in the light will, by varying the resistance of the selenium cell, induce corresponding fluctuations in the current of electricity generated by the cell.

By connecting the cell to what is known as a telephone receiver, the blind individual is enabled to recognize each individual letter by the sound produced as the instrument passes over the successive lines of print.—Tit-Bits.

Mr. Mackenzie King Will Not Address Canadian Club Here.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King will adopt the same course here as in other cities during his Western tour, and not address gatherings of the Canadian Club.

John Cochrane, president of the Victoria Canadian Club, who extended the invitation, has received a wire that Hon. Mr. King, on account of the proximity of the session, will have to curtail the number of his Western addresses; and cannot undertake non-political functions on this occasion.

The sands at Beechcombe were crowded with happy holiday-makers and the nigger minstrels were so funny that some of the roysterers almost smiled. Uncle Bones came round with the inevitable tambourine, leaving his companion alone in the field to tell stories about boarding-house landladies.

Suddenly the black gentleman in search of coppers had his tambourine ruthlessly snatched out of his hand by a stern-looking woman, who calmly swept all the money into her pocket.

"There, you impudent, cork-faced fellow," she cried, returning the tambourine. "Tell your funny friend who knows so much about landladies that I'm the one he forgot to pay the last time he was here."

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Weyl's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

CAPTAIN PEARSON IS TRIED OFFICIAL

Well-known Y.M.C.A. Man Becomes Secretary of Industrial Department

Captain H. A. Pearson, who has had charge of the military Y.M.C.A. work in Alberta and British Columbia for the past two years and a half, has been appointed secretary of the Industrial Department of the Y.M.C.A. for the same territory succeeding Mr. C. A. Kells, who recently resigned to become Associate Industrial Secretary for Oregon and Idaho.

Captain Pearson assumed his new duties at the New Year, but will continue to direct the work of the military department as long as it is continued.

The new Industrial Secretary is one of the best known Y.M.C.A. men in Canada. He served the Y.M.C.A. at Collingwood, St. Catharines and Toronto West from 1903 until August 1914 when he went to Vancouver as one of the first Y.M.C.A. secretaries.

He was one of the first group of six "Y" men who went to Europe and for the first two years of its operations he was in charge of the Y.M.C.A. work in France. Upon his return to Canada he was sent by the National Council Y.M.C.A. on a lecturing tour during which he told the story of the First Canadian Division in France in practically every centre of population from Halifax to Victoria.

During his tenure of office as Military Secretary, the welfare of the outgoing and returning soldiers in Alberta and British Columbia has been satisfactorily looked after. Red Triangle Clubs have been opened and operated at Vancouver, Calgary and Edmonton. The hospital work has been organized and conducted by a staff of workers wherever there are any soldiers in hospitals. Troop trains travelling either east or west have been manned by Y.M.C.A. secretaries bountifully supplied with games, reading matter, smokes and music for the boys. Under his direction a staff of hundreds of volunteers and employed workers looked after the returning men at the depots, the dispersal centres and until they got back into civil life. One task was the providing of a programme for the Canadian Siberian Force both in Canada and Siberia. Having looked after all the Canadian and Imperial requiring service, the department is now providing for the Chinese Labor Corps on its way back to China. It is a conservative estimate that 60,000 different soldiers and as many more Chinese coolies have been served by the Y.M.C.A. in the two provinces under Capt. Pearson's direction. In hospitals and in Soldiers' Settlements there are at present about 3,000 being served to say nothing of the hundreds which daily eat and sleep and enjoy the hospitality of the Red Triangle Clubs.

Mr. Pearson is thoroughly conversant with the industrial phase of the Y.M.C.A. work and enters upon the duties of his new office well equipped to give excellent service to the men in the industries of these two provinces.

Ward VII. Saanich Voters Discuss Dismissal of Late Police Chief

One hundred residents of Ward VII. Saanich, attending the Ratepayers' Association reorganization meeting last night got their first election thrill when Comrade R. Macnicol, candidate for police commissioner, differed with Reeve C. B. Jones over the dismissal of Chief Dryden from the Saanich Police Force.

When Mr. Macnicol attacked the Reeve, Mr. Jones jumped to parry the verbal thrusts. He offered to give a full explanation of the incident with all details.

Ex-Chief Dryden, himself, was one of those attending the meeting but did not say anything.

The audience on his behalf gave the Reeve to understand that they did not agree with the act of the Commissioners, and Mr. Jones was not able to state his case.

Albert Edward Horner, Secretary of the Central Ratepayers Association, outlined the uses of the ratepayers' Association, and declared that the members could and should be of great service to the Reeve and councillors in helping them to solve difficult problems of municipal government. He urged that the council make more use of the Ratepayers' Associations in this way.

Councillor Tom Dooley addressed the meeting on the same subject and supported the stand taken by Mr. Horner.

Councillor G. F. Watson, candidate for Reeve, announced that this platform was based on roads, sewers, water supply and schools.

His candidature was endorsed, as that of Councillor Dooley for re-election for school trustee, and Comrade Macnicol for police commissioner.

Reorganization of the Ward VII. Ratepayers' Association was completed with W. Huddleston, as president, R. E. Collins, vice-president, and T. Knight, secretary.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET

Tells How to Darken Gray Hair With a Home-Made Mixture.

Jolice Williams, the well-known actress, who was recently playing at the Imperial Theatre in St. Louis, made the following statement about gray hair and how to darken it:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray, streaked or faded hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Orelx Compound, and 1/4 ounce of glycerine.

The ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

The loss of his job is apt to puncture a man's vanity and let a lot of egotism run out.

VICTORIA SOLDIERS SEEK ENGLISH BRIDES.

To the Editor:—In your last night's issue I noticed the above short article.

If the six Victoria ex-service men are really seeking English wives, they would do well to enlist the sympathies of the Editor of The Daily Mirror, who if given a detail list of requirements, would most certainly discover the suitable girls and establish communication between them and the six candidates for matrimony.

Letters (and photographs) should be addressed to: The Editor The Daily Mirror Offices, 25-3 Boulevard Street, London, E. C. 4, England. Hoping this information may lead to a happy climax.

Yours faithfully,

E. SEYMOUR.

902 B. C. Permanent Loan Building, Victoria, B. C., January 8, 1920.

THE NOBLE ART OF BORROWING.

To the Editor:—The long-suffering taxpayers of the City of Victoria are requested to plunge still deeper into debt. The City Council in their wisdom—or want of it, principally the latter—invite the citizens to add to their ($18,000,000) eighteen million dollars debt a still further liability of $440,000, which, with the interest added will mean $807,545—a neat little sum of money to boldly request the Financial Magnates of the East to supply!

Take the smallest loan first, and examine the proposal. The City of Victoria is requested to supply $20,000 in cold cash and pay interest on behalf of some unknown parties, in order that they might lease some land in Oak Bay Municipality for a golf course. The said money will be applied in part to pay taxes to the municipality of Oak Bay, and the balance of the money will be used for laying out and preparing the land and buildings for the devotees of golf.

As Mark Tapscott once remarked: "What a happiness!! In the language of the street. 'Wouldn't that jar you?'"

Here is a chance unequalled for the rest of us to get in our deadly work. As a chess player, I hereby invite the City Council to provide funds for a chess room and suitable equipment therefor. The checker players of the city would like similar privileges. Not, mind you, some stuffy little corner in the Public Library, but a $20,000 proposition with interest added, so as to erect a fine building somewhere in Oak Bay, Saanich or Esquimalt. When money is to be expended for any special purpose, like the agricultural buildings, Old Men's Home, parks or beaches, it is eminently desirable to improve any other old place but Victoria itself.

Of course, the players who use the golf privileges will pay the annual bill to the city. No doubt of it whatever, but let me assure you, Mr. Editor, that neither the Mayor nor one alderman, nor all combined would endorse the bill. Bless their dear little hearts, they are not quite so greedy as that. One thing is certain, however, that if the Victoria taxpayers are crazy enough to vote in favor of the by-law, the Victoria taxpayers will assuredly pay the bill. Just fancy borrowing $20,000 and paying interest thereon for fifteen years to lease ground in another municipality for a game of golf!

Can folly farther go?

W. MARCHANT.

VANCOUVER ISLAND NEWS

Nanaimo Motogists.

At a meeting of the Nanaimo Automobile Association held in the Board of Trade rooms Tuesday night the action of the Board in petitioning the Government to hard surface the road from Nanaimo to Ladysmith by way of South Wellington and Granby was strongly endorsed and delegates were appointed to accompany the delegation to Victoria in support of the proposal.

The rumor that the Government was considering further taxation on autos was taken up, and the action of the Vancouver Automobile Club in sending a telegram to Premier Oliver opposing higher taxes was strongly endorsed, and the delegates were authorized to place the views of the Association before the Government. The petition of the business men asking for the time limit in the new parking by-law to be extended to one hour, was endorsed with one dissenting vote.

Candidates For Election.

A contest is assured in each of the three wards of Nanaimo, the Middle Ward, the last of the three to show any particular interest in the pending municipal elections, now having as candidates Alderman McGuckie, Alderman Matthews and Mrs. T. W. Martindale, the last named announcing her intention of contesting the Middle Ward for aldermanic honors. In the North Ward the names of Jas. Knight is to be added to aldermanic aspirants. Mr. Knight was waited upon Tuesday by a large delegation of North Ward Voters and after much persuasion expressed his willingness to contest the ward.

Ladysmith Choir.

The Methodist Church was full to overflowing last Sunday when the choir, assisted by members of other choirs and outside talent, gave a splendid rendering of "Farmer's Christ and His Soldiers."

The chorus was much appreciated and is all the more worthy in view of the fact that the choir was unavoidably unbalanced, the bass being too powerful for the remaining parts of the choir. The choir reached its zenith in the rendering of the two choruses, "Soldiers of Christ, Arise!" and "Oft in Danger, Oft in Woe," solo by Mr. A. E. Searle, in whose pieces the choir entered in the singing with great vigor and the technique and harmony was perfect.

It would be difficult to differentiate in the soloists of the evening, as they all more or less appealed greatly to the congregation. Special mention should be made, however, of the rendering by Miss M. Ross of the solo, "O, Blessed Redeemer." Miss Ross sang this solo in superb style and immediately captivated her audience. Mr. Searle was in good form, singing his later solos splendidly, particularly "By Jesus' Grave," which calls for good articulation and general technique.

The organist of the evening was W. H. Hudson, who was ably assisted by Houston with the violin.

Leave Cumberland.

There was a large gathering of members of the Holy Trinity Church in the parish hall, says The Islander, for the purpose of saying good-bye to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Peacey, who are leaving shortly for Victoria to take up their residence. Mr. and Mrs. Peacey have been members of Holy Trinity congregation for more than twenty years, and during that period they have been among the most active workers in the parish. Mr. T. E. Bate, who came here about the same time as Mr. Peacey, on behalf of the congregation, presented Mr. and Mrs. Peacey with a beautiful electric reading lamp, and expressed the deep regret of the whole membership at the loss he

Another Epidemic OF THE SPANISH INFLUENZA

A great many authorities have predicted a return of that terrible plague which swept Canada from one end to the other not long ago and left so many deaths in its wake, and those who did survive were left in a great many cases with serious after-effects such as weak heart, shattered nerves, impoverished blood and a general weakened and exhausted condition of the system.

If you are run down, heart not just right, nerves a little shaky, take a few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and fortify your system against this terrible plague "flu" before and it left you with any bad after effect Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will bring you back to health and strength.

Mrs. C. C. Palmer, Keppel, Sask., writes: "I wish to inform you of the great good Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. I got two boxes of your pills and must say they are the best I ever used, and I have taken a great many since. I will always keep Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in the house."

WOULD STAGE BIG FIGHT LABOR DAY

Gives Carpenter Chance to Get Used to Climate and to Train

Los Angeles, Jan. 9.—Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, expressed confidence to-day that in view of the attitude of Carpenter and his manager, Descamps, there would be no difficulty in getting together the details of the fight plans and staging it at Tia Juana, Mexico, under the direction of Promoter James W. Coffroth.

"I am glad to hear that Descamps is willing to yield a few points on the division of the purse," said Kearns, "and I feel sure that this can be arranged to suit everybody."

As regards Descamps' statement that Carpenter will give away weight, that is just a joke. Jack weighed 187 when he met Willard. Carpenter weighs between 180 and 185 pounds.

The slight difference in heavyweights means nothing. According to the story from Paris, they must think that Jack the giant killer weighs 217 pounds.

"It is true, of course, that Carpenter is leaving his homeland and undertaking a long trip to meet Dempsey; but to offset this, if Coffroth is willing, I will suggest that the fight be held on Labor Day instead of the Fourth of July. This will give Carpenter a chance to get used to the change, make his training as long as he likes, and perhaps pick up a little money in theatrical work or exhibitions if he wants to."

"Besides I think Labor Day is a better day than July 4, because lots of sportsmen want to spend the Fourth with their families, while they do not mind being away on Labor Day."

Kearns said he was going to San Diego to-day to meet Coffroth.

Paris, Jan. 9.—Georges Carpentier is willing to give concessions in the matter of weight in order to meet Jack Dempsey, according to a statement made to-night by The Associated Press by Descamps, Carpentier's manager. Descamps said he was willing to split the $100,000 purse offered by Jack Coffroth on a basis of sixty per cent for the winner and forty per cent for the loser.

"Carpentier is willing to journey to a strange land, face an exciting climate, give away from twenty-five to thirty pounds in weight and accept a split of 60-40 of Mr. Coffroth's offer," said Descamps. "We had intended to demand a 50-50 split, but are willing to accept a 60-40 division in order to show this is not merely a money making proposition, but also a sporting event. We will endeavor to give American sportsmen a real championship battle."

TACOMA BOUTS.

Tacoma, Jan. 8.—Morris Lux, Kansas City welterweight, defeated Johnny McCarthy, of San Francisco, in a six-round bout here to-night. Lux had a big lead on points.

"Tiny" Koch, Tacoma heavyweight, defeated Willie Keeler, of Seattle, in six rounds, dropping the visitor for a nine-count in the fourth round.

Walter Mason, Tacoma lightweight, defeated Leo Houck, Seattle; Young Sam Langford, San Francisco, 130-pounder, won from Al Lupo, Tacoma, and Frankie Pantley, of Seattle, and Young Castiel, a local bantamweight, fought a draw.

THIRD DRAW.

San Francisco, Jan. 8.—"Buck" Holly and Billy Shads, welterweights, fought their third consecutive four-round draw here to-night. Joe White won a decision over Lee Johnson.

SENATORS GET GOALS BUT OCCUPY CELLAR

Have Beaten War Veterans by One in Getting Counter This Season

Although the Senators occupy the cellar position in the amateur league race they have been the highest scorers in the four games played in this season's battle for the silverware. Helped along by the seven counters registered at the expense of the Elks in the opening game they have an even dozen to their credit, with ten against them in the debit column.

The Great War Veterans run them close for the scoring crown having registered eleven goals up to last Monday night. Fourteen times the War Veterans' net has been sagged.

The Elks have a fifty-fifty break with ten goals scored, and ten goals scored against them. The Two Jacks have proved the hardest team in the league to score against, the puck having passed Percy Watson only five times in four games. Mike's puckchasers have scored seven goals.

Monday night the Great War Veterans will endeavor to increase the number of goals scored against the T.J.s. The Elks will also be out to counter-balance the severe defeat which the Senators handed them four weeks ago.

THE UNITED'S VISIT

The 1920 tour of Canada by the Newcastle United footballers, first division stars of the English League, is going to be a more expensive undertaking than at first figured on by Toronto officials. A month ago they asked for a $1,000 guarantee for each match to be played in the Dominion. Con Jones met their proposal with a $3,000 guarantee for three matches in British Columbia. The Toronto officials advised him that the expenses would be heavier and that a heavier guarantee would be necessary. Mr. Jones immediately dispatched a wire to Tom Watson, of Toronto, offering a flat guarantee of $5,000 for three matches next Summer at the same time stipulating that all money above this amount should be allocated by him to the public schools of Vancouver for the purpose of boosting soccer.

Mr. Watson in his letter to the Vancouver sportsman states that the Newcastle team would reach British Columbia in June and suggests June 19 as the date for the first match in Vancouver.

TURF MEN PENALIZED.

New York, Jan. 9.—Lawrence Fay, horse owner, was ruled off the turf, and G. H. Morton lost his trainer's licence, at the annual meeting of the Jockey Club here yesterday. Action was taken on a report submitted by the stewards of the autumn meeting of the Empire City Racing Association.

August Belmont was re-elected chairman of the Jockey Club, and Joseph Widener was elected a member of the board of stewards.

NEW HAVEN BANS FIGHT.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 9.—The state police commission announced it would use every effort to stop any prize fight which may be attempted in Connecticut.

A 20-round match between Benny Leonard and Johnny Dundee is scheduled for January 16.

ENTER RUGBY FIFTEEN FOR OLYMPIC GAMES

Stanford and California University Men Would Make Team

New York, Jan. 9.—The United States will be represented at the Antwerp Olympic games next Summer in certain branches of sport not heretofore participated in appears probable in view of early activity shown in this direction. One of the latest proposals involves the entry of an American rugby football team in the Olympic competition, which, according to unofficial dates, is scheduled to be played during the closing weeks of August. According to Pacific Coast advices, the material and partial financial backing for such entry is available from among the players of the Universities of Stanford and California. It is understood that Stanford University athletic enthusiasts have expressed a willingness to help finance such a team.

It is pointed out that during the Christmas holidays a combined Stanford and California rugby team toured British Columbia, defeating two all-star Canadian teams, three to nothing; University of British Columbia eight to nothing, and all-star Victoria combination ten to four.

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 8.—Ad Santel, light heavyweight champion wrestler, defeated Jack Harborton, claimant of the title to-night, two falls out of three.

HERRMANN STILL HOLDS CHAIRMAN'S POSITION

Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 9.—Refusal of the fellow-members of the National Baseball Commission to accept the resignation of August Herrmann, as chairman, means that those opposing him have another month in which to decide upon a suitable man for the position. The commission as at present constituted, will get together for the last time in Chicago on February 11, after which date Mr. Herrmann gave notice yesterday that he would refuse to serve.

The opposition to Mr. Herrmann as chairman is said to consist principally of five National League clubowners.

Seattle After Lead To-night in Second Battle in Victoria

The Aristocrats and Seattle out to-night at the Victoria Arena to untangle the triple tie and fight for the top position will take the ice in the following order:

Seattle	Goal	Holmes
Fowler
Johnson	R. Defence	Rickey
C. Loughlin	L. Defence	Rowe
W. Loughlin		Walker
Dunderdale	Forward	Foyston
Oatman	R. Wing	Tobin
Kerr	R. Wing	Murray
Genge	Utility	Nichols

JACK WALKER
Hookcheck Walker and his company are always sure of a welcome

TO-NIGHT THE NO SMOKING ORDER goes into force at the Seattle vs. Victoria game at the Arena.

Charlie: "What are you fishing in this stream for, Billy?"
Billy: "Why, I want to get a fish like father caught here last year; it grows a couple of inches every time he talks about it."

Every success to Charlie Clark as a pro fighter, but if Charlie wants to shine where the purses are, he won't get far by challenging amateurs.

Prisoner: "Your Honor, I inherit the stealing habit. I can't resist it. My father was a blackmailer and my mother a photographer. You see, sir, I can't help taking things."

Judge: "Then take seven years' hard labor."

The fact that Tommy Dunderdale cannot spare any time on the benches and build up a scoring record seems to be keeping him on the ice the whole distance.

"What do you want, madam?"
"Mushin."

"Is that so? Fancy admitting it!"

Yarrows Will Stay
Yarrows soccer club decided at a meeting held last night to stay to the bitter end despite the reverses they have met with this season. For the rest of the season they anticipate having eleven men on the field, and the players decided unanimously to finish their schedule. After the present competition they will enter the cup tie series or any other competitions arranged.

from the Victoria fans. This season both teams rely upon the same style of play to get them into the play off and although Seattle took Wednesday's game and admittedly deserved their victory Eddie Oatman's men face them with no feelings of inferiority to-night. Heck Fowler has practically recovered his nerve from the crash on the jaw which he got from one of Will Loughlin's bullet-like rising efforts at practice, and the Victoria team will undoubtedly be playing in his usual style to-night.

Jack's Ambition.
The visiting players arrive in Victoria this afternoon. "We are here prepared to fight hard," declared Captain Walker to-day. "We realize that Victoria has always been more or less of a thorn in our pennant aspirations and we hope to leave here with a victory to our credit and the league leadership."

Dunderdale's Rival.
Frank Foyston, who is billed as Dunderdale's rival for the 1920 scoring honors, is a man that the Aristocrats will watch closely to-night, having regard to the beautiful combined movements and stickhandling that he and his captain indulge in. During his last appearance here he had the puck flying from his stick with as much speed as Petrie or Doc Roberts have ever been able to give the rubber. He picks the corners and gets in difficult angle shots in a manner to worry any custodian.

Foyston is due for a better season than the past two years. Three years ago he gave Cyclone Taylor and Bernie Morris a stiff fight for honors as the leading scorer of the Pacific Coast League. His eyes sharpened by a summer spent riding the range and searching cattle out of the scrub willows of Alberta the Mets star forward seems to be set and heading for the honor of being Seattle's entry in the scoring derby.

Another Star.
Another star on the line-up is Big Jim Riley. With these two men keeping up the form the Seattle offense is going to bother every defence machine in the league. They are able to mix their game with little loss of speed. They have the long shots of Walker and Foyston to mix with the terrific driving power of Riley and the aggressiveness of Nichols. Sibby Nichols is proving a wonder in front of the nets.

Twenty-eight months in France seem to have made him as hard as steel. He is a man who can stick handles with the best of them.

AROUND THE SPORTCAM'S

The combined ages of Monroe and Miller amount to nearly a century, but they go the full game at a good pace although they may not finish quite so fresh as some of the younger shipbuilders.

Romantic Girl (in steamboat): "Oh, captain, there's a bottle! Perhaps there's something in it!"
Captain: "Don't think so, miss. Nobody's throwin' 'em away with anything left in 'em nowadays."

The Victoria swimmers selected a capable captain in Jack McNeill. Jack lives for swimming during the summer months and has had a lot of experience in the game.

"Is there a fool at the end of this line?" snapped the merchant, angrily, to the telephone operator.
"Not at this end, sir," replied a voice, ever so sweetly.

But five players who were in the P. C. H. A. in the first season of hockey on the Coast are still in harness. The Victoria team comprises "Smoky" Harris, who was with Vancouver in 1912 and who later shifted to Portland and then back here; "Moose" Johnson, who went from New Westminster, then to Portland and on to Victoria; "Eagle Eye" Hughie Lehman, who played two seasons with New Westminster; and then came to the Millionaires; Tommy Dunderdale, who looks good for a bumper season, and Sibby Nichols, now with Seattle.

HEAVY OPPONENT EASY FOR WILDE

Without Extending Himself Scored Knockdowns in Three Rounds

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 8.—Jimmy Wilde, English flyweight champion, easily defeated Johnny "Babe" Asher, bantam champion of the A. E. F., in an eight-round no-decision bout to-night.

Wilde carried off the honors in every round apparently without extending himself. In the fourth, fifth and sixth, Wilde scored knockdowns. Wilde fought coolly and deliberately, following Asher around the ring. Asher, however, occasionally stepped in and out, scoring points, but the blows had no evident effect on Wilde. A few seconds after the first gong sounded, Wilde had Asher's nose bleeding, and in the second round a few lefts brought blood from Asher's mouth. Both boys fought cleanly and there was no clinching or holding.

Wilde stopped the fight in the sixth round and requested that Asher's chest be dried. His request was complied with and the contest continued. It was announced that Wilde, clad in sweater, had failed to move the beam placed at 106. Asher's weight was announced as 112 1/2 pounds.

TEMPORARY AMATEUR CARD IS SUGGESTION

Vancouver Delegates Will Push Matter at Victoria Meeting

Vancouver, Jan. 9.—Dave Leith, chairman of the local board of the B. C. A. U. and Gordon Moulis will represent the local body at the meeting of the provincial executive of the A. A. U. of C. in Victoria tomorrow. There was considerable discussion at last night's meeting regarding the reopening of cases of professional athletes who have applied for reinstatement, and as this was one of the matters to come up at the Victoria meeting, the delegates were instructed to recommend the reopening of cases where new evidence can be presented. This means that the Shore case and the Box case will likely be reopened at Saturday's meeting.

A motion to the following effect will be brought up in Victoria: "That an athlete who takes part only in one branch of sport and which is not governed by a provincial association affiliated to the British Columbia branch of the A. A. U. of C. may make application for his amateur status directly to the provincial governing body under whose jurisdiction he desires to play, and further, that such provincial governing body be given the necessary power to grant amateur cards, such cards to be immediately operative, and such decision to be conclusive at the meeting of the B. C. branch of the A. A. U. of C." This motion was approved by the local board last night and the delegates were instructed to vote in favor of it at the meeting in the capital.

Is Trinity Church a Squatter?

Trinity is the richest Protestant Church in the world. But do its immensely valuable real estate holdings really belong to Trinity or to the people of New York? Ever since 1709 this has been the subject of a bitter debate. In all fairness to the Church itself, as well as to citizens generally, should not this important question be clearly settled for all time?

Hearst's Magazine for 1920

HALL CAINE

EVER since the end of the war released Sir Hall Caine from his country's service, he has been working long and hard on a new novel, "The Master of Man." As in the case of "The Woman Thou Gavest Me" he has selected Hearst's as the medium for its publication in America. This epoch-making novel is the story of what goes on inside a man as the world of women unfolds to him.

"The Master of Man" begins in Hearst's for February.

VICENTE BLASCO IBÁÑEZ

NOT since Cervantes wrote Don Quixote has any Spanish writer attained the world-wide eminence of Vicente Blasco Ibanez, author of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." Argentine cowboy, sailor, soldier of fortune, revolutionist, political prisoner, founder of a city, Commander of the Legion of Honor, Ibanez as a novelist has been compared to Zola and even to Victor Hugo.

His great new novel, "Enemies of Women" begins in Hearst's for April.

REX BEACH

REX BEACH is writing a few more short stories and, naturally, he is writing them for Hearst's. They will be of Alaska—Rex Beach at his best! The first will appear early in the spring. To mention the short story writers in Hearst's for 1920, is to list the notable writers of the world: F. Britten Austin, Donn Byrne, R. W. Chambers, G. K. Chesterton, Richard Washburn Child, Larry Evans, Cosmo Hamilton, W. W. Jacobs, Maurice Level, E. Phillips Oppenheim, Roland Pertwee, Melville Davison Post, Arthur Somers Roche, W. B. Trites, are a few of them. Only writers recognized as the very best are allowed in Hearst's pages!

WALT MASON—G. K. CHESTERTON

IF Walt Mason didn't live in Kansas, G. K. Chesterton would be absolutely unique. And, if Sir Gilbert didn't dwell in London, the same would be true of Walt Mason. As it is, these two kindly philosophers are far more alike than you would think possible for two people so totally different. And both of them write regularly for Hearst's Magazine. Rudyard Kipling—Maurice Maeterlinck—Arnold Bennett—George Bernard Shaw—each of these, and many others, will make at least one contribution to the success of Hearst's in 1920.

A. CONAN DOYLE

SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE is today the greatest authority in the world on the Life-after-Death. Not in a mysterious philosophical way, nor a flippant popular way; but in the serious matter-of-fact common sense way you approach your own greatest problems. Whether you scoff at Spiritualism or preach it, you will want to hear what Conan Doyle has to say about it.

The first of his series of "True Ghost Stories" appears in Hearst's for January.

"B. L. T."—BRUNO LESSING—"K. C. B."

BERT LESTON TAYLOR, Kenneth C. Beaton, and Walt Mason together have more daily readers than any other three men you could mention. Every day, gigantic newspaper syndicates scatter their light clean cheerfulness among millions—every month their best work appears in Hearst's Magazine. Bruno Lessing is another with unmeasured popularity among newspaper readers, and he too has in Hearst's each month the very pick of his stories.

How Armies Got Too Big to Fight

Will the Nations really disarm? This is the most vital question in the world today. Dismayed by slaughter and financial ruin, people everywhere are crying for universal disarmament and permanent peace. No League of Nations, many think, can bring this about. Barquentine Jane L. Stanford Beat Offshore For Three Weeks

With her captain recovering from a nervous breakdown caused from almost continuously remaining on watch from December 16 to January 7, the barquentine Jane L. Stanford, Capt. MacLachlan, thirty-nine days out from San Pedro, reached here yesterday noon.

On December 16 the Stanford was sixty miles south of Cape Flattery, bucking contrary winds which had torn away part of her sails and rigging. On Christmas Day, in a blizzard, the Stanford passed the cape inbound under her own sail and was in past the island, when easterly winds forced her back to sea for safety. Three other times she backed up to the entrance of the Strait, but was forced back in order to save the ship from going ashore.

Ship in Danger.

"Had it not been for having on board a most excellent first mate I would have broken down," Capt. MacLachlan said. As it was, with the ship in danger almost continually, the captain remained on watch, sleeping but little until he was worn down in health when the tug finally threw a towing line over the bow of the Stanford.

The Stanford has had bad luck in the Strait several other trips, and during the winter of the snow and blizzard was blown ashore on Ediz Hoop spit, dragging two Puget Sound tugboats with her.

Since she was reported in at the cape Christmas Day the Stanford has been called the mystery ship, for when the fog lifted she was nowhere in sight and every port on the Strait and up Sound was looking for her.

FULL DETAILS OF NEW PACIFIC LINERS

U. S. Shipping Board Carriers Will Be of 13,000 Dead-weight Tons

Seattle, Jan. 9.—Full details of the twelve new passenger liners the Shipping Board is planning to allocate to Seattle and San Francisco for operation on the trans-Pacific trade routes have been received by the Port Commission. The vessels will be carriers of 13,000 deadweight tons, 535 feet long, 72 feet beam, 50 feet in depth, with a loaded draft of 30 feet and capable of maintaining a speed of 17 1/2 knots. They will have accommodations for 249 first cabin and 390 third cabin passengers and will carry a complement of 197 men as officers and members of the crew. There will be accommodations for four meals in the first cabins, which will make the total complement of each vessel 750 persons.

Executive Secretary C. J. France, who attended the Pacific Coast hearing for the allocation of passenger liners for Seattle and San Francisco, held by the Shipping Board in Washington, D. C., informed the Port Commission that John Barton Payne, chairman of the board, gave the delegation definite assurance that as soon as passenger service to South American ports was arranged Seattle and San Francisco would be taken care of with trans-Pacific passenger lines.

PARTIALLY SUBMERGED

New Orleans, La., Jan. 9.—The tank steamer Campanian of the Standard Oil Company's fleet, is reported as partially submerged near Southwest Pass, at the mouth of the river, after running aground while inward bound. Reports said the entire crew took to lifeboats and are at Pilot Town.

Nature's Mirror

When a woman is well and healthy—there's a sparkle in her eyes, a rose tint in her cheeks, and she has rich red blood. After taking nature's tonic which Dr. Pierce called "Favorite Prescription," there's elasticity in every movement and a spring in her step. Love comes to every woman who has bounding health—but when she is pallid, dull-eyed, languid, she has no magnetism nor does she appeal to any man.

SAVED A LIFE

Elmira, Ont.—"I have a very kind feeling for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for it once saved my mother's life. When going through middle age her health failed very fast; she suffered with pain in her head and backache, in fact, she had pains and aches all through her body. She lost weight, was very nervous, would become dizzy and at times faint and fall whenever she changed to bed. This necessitated our watching her all the time, we dared not leave her alone. She was as miserable as one could be and live. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was recommended to her. She took six bottles and was completely restored to good health."—MRS. B. E. UPTHE-GROVE, Box 223.

CAMERON SHIP PLAN AWAITS DECISION BY FOUNDATION COMPANY

The possibility of the Foundation Company continuing operations here, and its refusal to lease its yards to another concern until the beginning of February has halted the shipbuilding scheme backed by J. O. Cameron and associates. "The Cameron interests have no wish to go into the shipbuilding business, save as a means of providing necessary tonnage to export our products and of continuing an industry," Mr. Cameron stated today. "If another shipbuilding company will fill in the breach, we shall be more than satisfied."

SILTING IN HARBOR DETRIMENT TO BOATS

Action Taken on Question at Annual Meeting of Inner Harbor Association

The urgent need of further dredging operations to give the required depth of water in the harbor for the safe maneuvering of vessels was emphasized by Captain C. D. Neroutos, marine superintendent of the B. C. Coast Steamship Service, at the annual meeting of the Inner Harbor Association, held yesterday afternoon in the Belmont House. The fairway was continually silting up, contended Captain Neroutos, so much so that some of the wharves in the Inner Harbor were becoming less available to the larger boats using the harbor, this condition at the Belleville Street wharf being particularly unfavorable. Owing to this gradual silting the navigators of the coastwise passenger boats had to watch the tide situation much more closely in making a landing.

In order to overcome the silting of the harbor the suggestion was made by D. O. Lewis that a dam and lock at the Gorge bridge might be a solution of the silting difficulty.

The presence of log-booms in close proximity to the fairway of the Inner harbor was also brought up by Captain Neroutos, and in this he was supported by George McGregor, Captain Neroutos advocated that the log mooring limits be more strictly defined, and that blue prints be furnished by the Government. The secretary was instructed to draw up plans in conjunction with the harbor master and submit them to the resident engineer for the perusal of the authorities.

G. A. Kirk was again elected president of the Association, and Thos. C. Sorby, secretary-treasurer. The following were elected to the Board of Management for the ensuing year: The Mayor of Victoria, ex-officio; J. O. Cameron, C. J. V. Spratt, Captain J. W. Troup (Captain C. D. Neroutos acting in his absence), A. Bechtel, Chas. H. French and L. Gonnason.

Those present at the meeting were Captain C. D. Neroutos, Captain Clarke, harbor master; G. A. Kirk, Lincoln Smith, D. O. Lewis and Thos. C. Sorby.

The secretary read the annual report of the Inner Harbor Association, dealing with the development of the Port of Victoria.

TROUBLE WITH CREW ON EXCHANGE RATES

Captain Hyman, of the Australian motorship Hylburn, which was here on Monday discharging San Francisco freight, is having trouble with his crew on exchange rates. The crew was signed on at Sydney, and on arrival at San Francisco they asked for advance wages. The men were offered their money in Australian cash, but as the exchange on the pound sterling is heavy they demanded payment with full exchange. The American price for the pound was $3.76. The men asked $4.80. They libeled the ship to force this, but the master obtained release by giving bonds. On arrival at Vancouver the wage question was still unsettled. The exchange in Vancouver gave the pound a value of $4.13, and this also was unsatisfactory to the men, who stood firm for $4.80.

Esquimalt.—To find the depth of water on the sill of the drydock at any tide, add 13.4 feet to the height of high water as above given.

The time used is Pacific standard for the 120th meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower low water.

CHOLBERG VESSEL LEAVES EVERETT

Victoria-built Schooner Vancouver Clears for Buenos Aires

Everett, Jan. 9.—Coming to Puget Sound from Norway to take the four-masted schooner Vancouver, to that country, Capt. A. Hansen and First Mate E. Rosvik sailed the vessel yesterday, carrying 3,700 poles, for Buenos Aires. The route of the schooner will be down the coast of the two Americas, around Cape Horn, up to Buenos Aires, and thence to Norway.

The Vancouver is the property of the Motor & Sail Company, Portland, Oregon, in her home port, according to Captain Hansen. Captain Hansen came to Halifax and crossed Canada by rail to reach Everett. The Vancouver was built in Victoria and towed here in December. While Captain Hansen has been with his firm for thirty years, he has never been on the Pacific. He figures ninety days will be required for the trip to Buenos Aires, and another month necessary to reach Norway.

Captain Hansen gives two reasons for not going through the canal. A tug would be necessary to take the Vancouver through, and tug service comes higher than wind, and the captain says that it is shorter to Buenos Aires around the Horn than through the canal.

SCHOONER TOTAL LOSS

RETURNS TO LOCAL SERVICE TO-DAY

S.S. GOVERNOR

Returning to local service today is the S.S. Governor, which left Port of Spain, Trinidad, on January 7, for Victoria. The Governor is a 1,000-ton steamer, built in 1914, and is operated by the British Columbia Steamship Company. She is commanded by Captain J. W. Troup, and has a complement of 197 men. The Governor is expected to arrive in Victoria today afternoon.

GOVERNOR IS BACK ON VICTORIA RUN

Admiral Boat Will Leave Today With Big List of Passengers for South

Taking up her schedule in the Victoria service the American steamship Governor, of the Pacific Steamship Company's fleet, will berth at the Outer Docks at 4 o'clock this afternoon to embark passengers for San Francisco.

The Victoria-California service, which was interrupted for several months, was resumed last Friday by the steamship President, and the Governor is resuming her calls today. The northbound calls will be resumed on Monday, when the President is scheduled to arrive here from San Francisco. The Governor is posted to sail at 5 o'clock this evening, and according to statements by officials of the company, she is booked to capacity.

The British Columbia business shows signs of rapidly picking up now that the service has been restored. A good number of passengers will board the Governor this afternoon after she comes alongside her berth from Seattle.

The schedule becomes fully effective to-day and from this time forward both northbound and southbound calls will be made by the President and Governor.

is again broken, it was announced today by the Commercial Pacific Cable Company here. The break, between Guam and Manila, is believed to be in about the same place as the severance last February, which caused a 2 1/2 months' suspension of traffic.

Coral formation, its sharp points abrading and finally cutting the cable, is believed to have been the direct cause of the break. Cable company officials estimate that repairs will take at least one month.

ADMIRAL LINE IS STILL DICKERING FOR HILL LINERS

Portland, Jan. 9.—The Wilcox and L. H. Hunt interests in the Pacific Steamship Company, amounting to about ten per cent, of the stock in the concern, have been bought by the Robert Dollar Steamship Company, according to announcement made by H. F. Alexander, president of the Pacific Steamship Company. The latter company is trying to close a deal with the United States Government to buy two former Hill liners, the Great Northern and Northern Pacific.

PIPES IN PARLIAMENT.

The new Member of Parliament soon makes himself at home in the extensive quarters of the Palace of Westminster, which are devoted exclusively to the Commons. First of all, he secures his own particular peg for overcoat and hat in the cloakroom, to which purpose the beautiful St. Stephen's Cloisters—part of the ancient Houses of Parliament which survived the destructive fire of 1534—has been turned.

The new member also obtains the use of one of the long rows of lockers, or presses, in the corridors immediately surrounding the Chamber, for storing books and papers; strolls on the Terrace by the river, treats himself to a pinch of snuff from the silver box in charge of the door-keeper of the House of Commons, which is kept replenished by a vote of 25 a year from the Exchequer; and writes letters on the official stationery of the House to relatives and friends, giving his first impressions of life at St. Stephen's.

An Unwritten Law.

But it is the Smoking-Room that the new member will in time proclaim to be the most interesting place. He may smoke a pipe there. That it may be thought, is a thing that goes without saying. But it is not so very long since when, by unwritten custom, strictly observed, only a cigar dared be smoked in the precincts of the House of Commons. The story goes that it was a new member—a Radical in politics—who first introduced the democratic pipe, greatly to the scandal of older members, Conservatives and upholders of all the traditions.

Not only did they regard him with a fixed, stony stare, but one of them demanded to know, with mingled pain and indignation in his voice, whether he was aware that his conduct was wholly "out of order." "I think it is in order," was the Radical's reply; "but in any case I don't greatly care."

That settled it. There could not very well be an appeal to the Speaker on the point of order, and as is the way in Parliament, once a precedent is set, it is followed by those who like it, without any breach of decorum.

So there are pipe members and cigar members. One night, in the passage outside the Smoking-Room, the extraordinary spectacle was presented of two members with their coats off, and, for an instant, an anxious-looking policeman standing between them. The members had been in the lavatory together, washing their hands, and by a mischance changed coats.

One of them, putting his hand in his coat pocket, found a briar pipe which was not his. Looking at his coat and then at his companion's, he guessed what had happened, and apologetically explained the situation. "Try if you do not find a cigar case in that right-hand pocket," he said. "So there is," replied the other. "Let us change here." It was at this point that the policeman made his appearance. Seeing the two members facing each other and taking off their coats, he naturally feared the worst, and, placing a big hand on the shoulder of each, exclaimed: "Gentlemen, gentlemen! Not here, please!"

The old constable might have guessed that two members going to the Smoking-Room couldn't possibly have any design of assault and battery on one another. The Smoking-Room is the temple of conciliation, harmony, and companionship between the various types of members of different political opinions who forgather there. The one supreme rule of conduct among Parliamentary smokers is that a bone of contention which may have been worried over in the House must on no account be repeated in the Smoking-Room.—Tit-Bits.

A ray of hope is capable of penetrating the darkest despair.

NEW BELGIAN STAMPS.

Postage stamp mail just arriving from Belgium shows a new issue of stamps with a portrait of King Albert, head and shoulders—in trench helmet and trench coat. Returned American soldiers immediately recognize this as having been taken from the same original as the copies of the King's photograph shown in store windows in Brussels, Liege and other cities after the armistice. It was said to be King Albert's favorite picture. It is also the most popular among the Belgians.

The stamp is larger than the average, being an inch and a sixteenth wide and an inch and a quarter high. At the Belgian Consulate it was said that this was a new issue. They have received mail bearing the red 10-centime stamp with this portrait, but have not yet seen the 15-centime issue, which is a deep heliotrope. Americans who saw Belgium's royal leader during his visit to this country will agree that it is a splendid likeness of the King.

HARD TO BELIEVE.

The agent, while he went to the cottage to collect his employer's rent left his horse at the gate in the charge of a friend, who happened that day to be accompanying him on his rounds.

The latter became engrossed in conversation with the small boy of the family. "Are you sure," he asked at length "that you are only nine years old? I really think there must be some mistake."

The boy was positive. To make doubly sure, however, he called out to his mother, and asked for confirmation of his statement.

The mother's reply left no further room for doubt. For a moment there was silence; then he asked: "Say, mister, what made you think me more than nine years old?" "I didn't," was the reply. "What puzzled me was how you could get so dirty in nine years."—Tit-Bits.

Britain's Great Trade Opportunity

Sir Auckland Geddes at the Aldwych Club.

British industry and its outlook was the theme of an important address delivered by Sir Auckland Geddes, President of the Board of Trade, at a recent luncheon given by the Aldwych Club in his honor.

Every nation, without exception, commenced Sir Auckland, was short of something that Great Britain could supply. Europe was short of goods that we could manufacture, and here was the opportunity for our traders. He found that there was great fear that British traders were likely to be seriously hit by Germany, by Japan, and by America.

From careful investigation he had made he could assure them that Germany could not, certainly for the present, and, perhaps, not for years, hope to rank among the great manufacturing nations of the world.

Toy Trade's Tale of Woe.
Germany was lacking in raw materials, and her workmen, hopeless, dispirited, and unsettled, were not working.

A few weeks ago British toy manufacturers came to him with a woeful tale of possible German competition. The total value of German toys that had come into this country since the armistice was $7—(laughter)—and that was imported by the Board of Trade—(more laughter)—in order to show British toy manufacturers what Germany could not do. (Renewed laughter.)

The fear of German competition was a shadow. Let them not be afraid of a shadow. (Hear, hear.) That Japan might be a serious competitor with us in the nations of the world seemed plausible enough; but wages in Japan, which used to be in pennies a day for skilled workers were now 6s. per day, while rice, the staple food, which used to be 6s. per bushel, was now 25s. per bushel.

Apart from the cost of living, the Japanese workers were by no means as skilled as British.

Another great bugbear with British manufacturers was the fear of American competition. When he had disposed of the danger from Germany and Japan there were still people who shivered before the danger of America.

No Need to Fear U. S.
America was not well placed for world trade; besides, America had troubles of her own, and the exchange there was hindering her exports.

He could assure them that America could not drive British trade out of the markets of the world if she would only make up her mind as a nation to work together to serve the greater interests of her export trade. (Hear, hear.)

All parts of the world were clamoring for goods, and there was no country in the world better situated to take advantage of the great opportunity that the nation had presented to it. (Hear, hear.)

There were difficulties in the path, of course, but if all pulled together as the nation had pulled together during the war, those difficulties would be overcome. (Hear, hear.)

The recent bad strike taught Britain one lesson: that the community was sound, adaptable, and full of energy and determination. (Hear, hear.) Those were the qualities that would win in the struggle for the world's markets.

There were responsibilities that must rest on the Government. He could assure them that the Government was doing all it could to assist traders by placing at their disposal all the information available regarding overseas trade.

Let the business community work together to re-establish British export trade instead of throwing bricks and mud.

On the other hand, what were traders themselves doing? Were they doing all they could to develop export trade? Some were and some were not.

Government Behind Traders.
There were difficulties of exchange, but the Government was behind traders so far as foreign exchanges were concerned.

His complaint against traders was that those who formerly had been engaged in foreign trade were content with developing home trade, and were now exploiting the home market, which could never be as important as the overseas market.

Sir Auckland pleaded with such manufacturers to return to export trade. The best markets abroad were being ignored.

What was affecting home industry was not the disturbances of death, but the disturbances of a new life that was flowing in the veins of the workers.

The great mass of workers were true at heart, but were striving, and rightly, for a higher standard of life, but in order to get the better life there was the need for greater production.

Manufacturers and makers must not slide back into the methods of 1914 to meet the needs of 1919-20.

Guilty Manufacturers.

The nation would conquer if it took its courage in both hands and went boldly forward. It was not only the workers who might be limiting production; many manufacturers were also guilty of limiting output in order to keep up prices.

That was treachery. (Hear, hear.) There was a dreadful fallacy fermenting in men's minds at the present moment that all they wanted was higher wages.

We must conquer such fallacies as those, and if we work to conquer he could assure them that, dark as was the outlook, our export trade was bright with the light of hope. (Cheers.)

Boss Your Nerves

By the Medical Correspondent of Tit-Bits.

Scores of people appear to be entirely at the mercy of their nerves. Instead of exerting complete control over these very wayward components of their bodies.

In colloquial language, they have, "no grip of themselves." Their moods, thoughts, emotions, and feelings run away with them. They start at their own shadows, are depressed at thoughts of the past, and filled with forebodings about the future.

Some of these victims of defective nerve-control are afraid to go along a street alone, or to cross an open space; others dread a closed room; others, again, are unable to appear in public and utter two consecutive sentences without breaking down; thousands are unable to enter a room full of people without suffering all sorts of nervous tremors and sinkings of heart.

To Cure Shyness.

What is really the matter with these people? The chief cause of their lack of grip of their own nerves is that they have never learned to impose their will on the mental processes which should control and regulate all their feelings, thoughts, and movements; or that, if they have, at one period been masters of their own nervous systems, their mastery has been weakened and rendered ineffective by illness.

Doctors call these persons "neurotics." Painters, poets, musicians, and creative artists in general are necessarily very sensitive to outside influences, and it is a matter of everyday experience that what is called the "artistic temperament" is of a decidedly neurotic type.

Examples of lack of control over reflex actions are seen when people jump from their seats at any noise, or of a door, or give a loud gasp; or again, are thrown into paroxysms of delight or grief when good or bad news is conveyed to them. The nerve centres of such people are too irritable or "jumpy," because they make no effort to restrain their natural tendencies. They have got into the habit of starting at any noise, or of dancing with delight, rage, or grief; and habit having become second nature they think they can do no other.

The idea at the back of such people's head is that they always are nervous, or always have been, or that they are nervous because their parents were nervous, the reason varying in each case. They have a fixed belief that the state of their nerves being what it is, it always has been so in the past, and must continue to be so in the future.

Encouraged by Success.

This view is quite erroneous. These people can control or restrain their actions by an effort of will. They do not make this effort because they believe firmly that they cannot make it. Once they are convinced that they can make such an effort, and do so, their first success encourages and inspires them to repeat the success, and by such repeated efforts nerve control soon becomes a habit as fixed as was previously the habit of lack of control. This habit is most easily cultivated by nervous people through the medium of auto-suggestion—i.e., self-suggestion, which experience has proved to be a method of cure of immense value to sufferers from the infinite variety of nervous ailments that afflict humanity.

The application of auto-suggestion is simplicity itself. Suppose you are the victim of groundless fears, bashfulness, lack of confidence, timidity. You must at once proceed to get into your mind the positive idea that you are courageous, confident, superior, bold, and even aggressive.

Imbue your mind thoroughly with these positive ideas, think them night and day until your mentality is saturated with these beliefs, and you must in time become what you think yourself to be. On no account must you actually think negatively—i.e., think you are not fearless, not bashful, not lacking in confidence, because each negative thought suggests and keeps active the idea which you really wish to banish utterly from your mind.

Forget and banish all the old thoughts of failure and self-deprecation, keeping in mind only those new ideas which, persisted in, will give you a new mentality and an absolute control of your nervous system.

AT THE WRONG SHOP.

A flashily dressed, effeminate young man entered a jeweller's shop and in glib speech informed one of the immaculate assistants that he wished to purchase a birthday present for his sweetheart.

No, he remarked, he hadn't any idea as to what he really wanted, but whatever it might be, he declared emphatically, it must be a suitable token of his esteem, and at the same time come within the possibilities of his income.

"And what," inquired the assistant, "if I may ask the question, is your income?"

"A pound a week," was the prompt reply.

"In that case," remarked the dispenser of gold and diamonds, in his most suave and charming voice, "I'm afraid you've come to the wrong place; you're more likely to be suited at the toyshop round the corner."—Tit-Bits.

WHO'S WHICH?
A benevolent old gentleman stopped at the sight of two similar looking infants in a baby carriage. "Ah, twins!" he said to the nurse. "And how do you know them apart? Which is which?"

"This one," answered the nurse, pointing, "is this, and that one is that."

"Quite so," said the gentleman. "But," indicating the second one, "might not this one be this also?"

"It might," replied the girl; "but, then that one would be that."

"And how do you manage to separate them?"

"We put one in one room and the other in another."

"Indeed, And which one do you put in one room?"

"Sometimes this one and sometimes that."

"And how do you know which one you're putting in which room?"

"We look and see which one is in the other room and then we know that the other is in which room."

"Good!" said the gentleman. "But if one of them was in the house and the other was away somewhere, would you be able to tell which was in the house?"

"Oh, yes, sir!" replied the girl, earnestly. "All we would have to do would be to look at him, and then we'd know that the we saw was the one in the house and then, of course, the one away somewhere would be the other. There are only two of them, ye see, which makes it very easy."
